interviewing is one of the most effective ways to identify and attract employees who will be successful enough to stay but few managers are adept at the skill this book helps eliminate expensive errors of judgment by presenting readers with a set of behaviorally based interviewing strategies written by the faculty of the prestigious university of michigan executive education center and based on one of their most popular courses its seven step strategic interviewing approach helps interviewers define the competencies candidates need to possess and make hiring decisions based on accurate predictions of the candidates performance

how do you go about finding the best possible person to fill a job although interviewing candidates is important it can waste a lot of time and be unproductive if you don t have the right types of candidates to interview the key to both successful interviewing and hiring is effective screening this involves filtering resumes to find job candidates who are best suited for the position what do you think happens if you don t screen applicants properly you ll probably ignore some credible candidates who deserve an interview you ll also waste time on interviewing unsuitable candidates who aren t qualified for the position you need to fill this book will help you avoid these pitfalls ensuring that you identify the best possible applicants to include in the interviewing process a good job description sets out the expectations for the job and for the candidate you ll ultimately hire before you can write a good job description you need to perform a job analysis you examine what the job entails for example what skills and qualifications the person in this role needs and what tasks the new employee needs to perform to succeed in the role from this analysis you create the job description which accurately identifies all the requirements a successful candidate must meet an incomplete or inaccurate job description can be disastrous for example say you need to hire a graphic designer for your advertising agency the job requires someone with experience in using a specific desktop publishing software product if you fail to include this in the job description you may hire someone unsuitable and end up having to spend time and money on training this person once you ve created an accurate job description and advertised the job the next step is to screen applicants resumes to determine who meets the job requirements at this point your success in identifying suitable candidates for interviewing will depend on the accuracy of the requirements you included in your job description you should be able to quickly determine who meets the minimum job requirements you identified and weed out those that don t then you can examine more closely the remaining resumes master s thesis from the year 2017 in the subject psychology work business organisation grade 1 0 rhine waal university of applied sciences language english abstract the present explorative research study dealt with the candidate experience which is the sum of individual experiences of candidates with a potential employer during a recruiting process the study examined which experiences candidates made and which expectations they have within application processes in order to answer this question a mixed method approach was used first qualitative interviews n 4 were conducted the content analysis revealed eleven categories which played an important role from the subjects perspective second a quantitative online questionnaire n 170 based on these categories was performed the data were analyzed by means of descriptive analyses t tests or rather mann whitney u tests analyses of variance and correlations in general the findings showed that the applicants had a quite positive candidate experience however some basic features have to be considered within application processes including aspects such as giving feedback providing information about the application status sending confirmations of receipt and rejections and the indication of a personal contact person furthermore the study found significant differences between particular groups of applicants e g females and males which are specified in the present work in addition the candidate experience correlated with the willingness for a renewed application and the likelihood to recommend the employer to others summarizing it can be stated that taking into account the candidate experience offers a promising approach to master challenges like the demographic change the skill shortage the war for talent and the digitization by ensuring a positive candidate experience companies can differentiate from competitors in times in which there is change from an employer to an applicant market
