mirza ghalib indias most loved poet lived at a time of great political and cultural transformation when the established order the mighty mughal empire was falling apart around midnineteenth century and the new regime spearheaded by the east india company was not yet fully in place there are multiple lenses that can be used to look at ghalibs work at the surface he is a romantic poet par excellence but if we dig deeper ghalib is much more than a romantic poet he expressed ideas that came from conflicting philosophical traditions namely the concept of shunyata nonexistence that is a core belief in buddhist philosophy and the concept of maya that is at the center of vedantic philosophy this book contains lyrical free verse english translation of 235 ghazals contained in ghalibs urdu divan popularly known as divan e ghalib one reason that makes the second revised and expanded edition of the book unique and extremely valuable is the addition of original urdu text in an easy to read romanized format according to distinguished literary critic and leading ghalib scholar professor gopi chand narang ghalib was never so close to the reader as he is now with this work surinder has succeeded in his creative transformation of mirzas ghazals into poetic english where others have failed
