within the familiar clash of religious conservatism and secular liberalism paul maltby finds a deeper discord an antipathy between christian fundamentalism and the postmodern culture of disenchantment arguing that each camp represents the poles of america s virulent culture wars he shows how the cultural identity lifestyle and political commitments of many americans match either the fundamentalist profile of one who cleaves to metaphysical and authoritarian beliefs or the postmodern profile of one who is disposed to critical inquiry and radical democratic values maltby offers a critique that operates in both directions his use of the resources of postmodern theory to contest fundamentalism s doctrinal claims ultra right politics anti environmentalism and conservative aesthetics informs his engagement with contemporary fundamentalist painting spiritual warfare fiction dominionist attitudes to nature and a profoundly undemocratic interpretation of christianity at the same time maltby identifies some of fundamentalism s legitimate spiritual concerns assesses the cost of perpetual critique and exposes the deficit of spiritual meaning that haunts the culture of disenchantment in this provocative and groundbreaking nonfiction novel albert wang who is an investigative reporter in the tradition of hunter thompson and norman mailer reinvents his fictional alter ego qi peng as a utah conceptual artist who is trying to make it into the contemporary art world particularly new york city from a relative unknown this mystery novel begins with qi peng s suicide within his future and leads down a darker path into this emerging artist s sordid past as he aspires to find love and appreciation from his fellow artists characters celebrities wang s controversial reportage as an act of performance art focuses on the spiritual murder of the soul as a counterpart to truman capote s classic book in cold blood that looks at physical murder of humans
