the final volume of the library of wisdom and compassion by his holiness the dalai lama takes us to the uncommon practices and realizations of vajrayana to the full awakening of a buddha his holiness the dalai lama skillfully illuminates the unique qualities of vajrayana as practiced in tibet and the method to eradicate the subtlest obscurations preventing the full awakening of a buddha speaking to newcomers and advanced students alike he explains the similarities and differences of the sutra and tantra paths having gathered many of the doubts and difficult points concerning the tantric path he clarifies the purpose of receiving proper empowerment by qualified gurus and the ethical restraints and commitments required to enter the path of secret mantra the paths and stages of the four tantric classes are explained as are the generation stage and completion stage practices of highest yoga tantra you are introduced to the practices of clear appearance and divine identity common to all tantric sadhanas as well as the distinctive practices of illusory body and actual clear light that overcome the subtlest defilements on the mind and eliminate all obscurations quickly the understanding of emptiness in sutra and tantra is the same but the consciousness perceiving emptiness differs in highest yoga tantra that consciousness is great bliss which arises from knowing the methods to manipulate the channels winds and drops of the subtle body in short in vajrayana and the culmination of the path the dalai lama sets out the path that leads to blissful awakening and enables us to be of great benefit to all sentient beings the abhisamayalamkara summarizes all the topics in the vast body of the prajñāpāramitā sutras resembling a zip file it comes to life only through its indian and tibetan commentaries together these texts not only discuss the hidden meaning of the prajñāpāramitā sutras the paths and bhūmis of sravakas pratyekabuddhas and bodhisattvas but also serve as contemplative manuals for the explicit topic of these sutras emptiness and how it is to be understood on the progressive levels of realization of bodhisattvas thus these texts describe what happens in the mind of a bodhisattva who meditates on emptiness making it a living experience from the beginner's stage up through buddhahood groundless paths contains the first in depth study of the abhisamayalamkara the text studied most extensively in higher tibetan buddhist education and its commentaries from the perspective of the nyingma school of tibetan buddhism this study consists mainly of translations of maitreya s famous text and two commentaries on it by patrol rinpoche these are supplemented by three short texts on the paths and bhumis by the same author as well as extensive excerpts from commentaries by six other nyingma masters including mipham rinpoche thus this book helps close a long standing gap in the modern scholarship on the prajñāpāramitā sutras and the literature on paths and bhumis in mahayana buddhism arya maitreya s ornament of clear realization with its indian and tibetan commentaries presents the complex dynamics of the path to liberation as a succession of realizations of the empty nature of all phenomena this presentation is a powerful antidote to whatever two dimensional views we might hold about spiritual experience and the journey to enlightenment the wish for freedom an altruistic intention and the wisdom of emptiness constitute the three principal aspects of the path to enlightenment
