what is the material basis of the thoughts that occur inside our heads where do imaginative creative or spiritual thoughts come from can these really be the product of nerve impulses in the brain and is the human mind radically different from that of other species or is our uniqueness more superficial than real in this book oxford biologist john parrington proposes a radical new theory of human consciousness arguing that a qualitative leap in consciousness occurred during human evolution as language and tool use transformed our brains rejecting outdated views of the brain as a hard wired circuit diagram he draws on the latest insights from neuroscience to show that meaning is created within our heads through a dynamic interaction of oscillating brain waves this new model of consciousness not only provides a material basis of our innermost thoughts but also explains why the mind can sometimes go wrong causing deep mental distress human consciousness is one of the most fascinating mysteries sheltered by the brain evidencing that what happens between our ears is more important than what happens outside our skull in addition how do we know whether someone other than ourselves is conscious this book offers a compelling bioethical analysis of one of the most intriguing topics of neuroscience states of consciousness it brings together the thought provoking contributions of international experts concerning the role of bioethics in fostering dialogue between different but related fields of study concerning human consciousness and its altered states including ethics of neuroscience psychology philosophy and anthropology theology clinical ethics law and social studies donald psychology queen s university canada challenges the prevailing view that seeks to explain away human consciousness and presents a theory on the origins of the modern mind he describes the cultural and neuronal forces that power human modes of awareness and proposes that the human mind is a hybrid product of the interweaving of the brain with an invisible symbolic web of culture to form a distributed cognitive network using evidence from brain and behavioral studies of humans and animals he explains how an expansion of consciousness transcends the limitations of the mammalian mind and elaborates the foundations of self evaluation and self reflection c book news inc in recent writings on marx one finds an increasing interest in his humanism this phenomenon began in the third decade of our century as a reaction against the mechanistic and stereotyped image of marx 1 characteristic of the second international and of stalinism lukacs in history and class consciousness 1923 was one of the first to discover this new marx and he did so even before the most important 2 of the humanistic writings of the young marx had been discovered with the publication of these writings in 1932 namely the economic 3 and philosophic manuscripts of 1844 this new outlook was given enormous impetus in these manuscripts marx makes the human being the creator and the goal of all reality the objectification of the human essence through labor transforms both society and nature labor transforms its world into a place which mirrors unfolds and confirms the human being this humanism is a complex and many faceted issue in this book we will be concerned only with a certain part of it i e the epistemology method and doctrine of nature which it involves other aspects of it marx concept of alienation and his theory of labor and the state have 4 been dealt with elsewhere god s physics a new science transforming the world our life science is currently undergoing a profound paradigmatic shift from the old material causal paradigm of 20th century s relativity theory and quantum mechanics to the new god s physics paradigm succinctly stated god s physics replaces our old way of looking at the world as created by a random big bang nuclear explosion towards an exciting new realization that our entire physical universe our bodies and minds and our total physical and human existence are all being continuously created by a singular higher universal consciousness reality god yes according to this new god s physics paradigm there exists a singular higher universal consciousness reality which produces remembers sustains and evolves every small pixel in our entire physical universe including our own body and mind helps and encourages us to lead a moral purposeful and meaningful life indeed according to this new god s physics understanding of the world everything in our universe e g from the tiniest cells in our bodies every atom in the universe every rock plant animal or human being are all being produced and re produced a billion billion billion times per second by this singular higher universal consciousness reality ucr i e god indeed this profound new scientific discovery comes along with the realization that this singular higher universal consciousness reality cares about our own moral choices evolves every small pixel in the universe as well as us as intelligent conscious human beings towards leading a moral spiritual existence within an awakened new morally and spiritually perfected world therefore the discovery of this new exciting god s physics not only resolves the biggest unresolved scientific enigma that einstein was working on for half of his illustrious scientific career but also completely transf
