german unique ideas are described making legal laws from the gut violating the laws of nature physics it provides proof with official figures that none of this can work several examples with their pitfalls are explained some small calculations are made to show all this 1 page because all this can only be done with ideology the psychology behind it is unraveled magazine articles are used as examples to show the enormous effort that goes into manipulating the population in germany it is a bit like a textbook explaining how to evaluate innovations which are shown as a silver bullet to save the world in summary it shows the means by which germany is systematically being driven to ruin by green ideology energy is theorized and education is destroyed natural sciences are no longer part of german education the new democratic censorship is that journalists modify stories according to their morality engineering basics are already missing in all topics to show one result renewables cannot work in germany because of the high population density and because of lack of lossless energy storage therefore it makes no sense to compare germany with other countries with different conditions media narratives inform our ideas of the future and games are currently making a significant contribution to this medial reservoir on the one hand games demonstrate a particular propensity for fantastic and futuristic scenarios on the other hand they often serve as an experimental field for the latest media technologies however while dystopias are part of the standard gaming repertoire games feature utopias much less frequently why this anthology examines playful utopias from two perspectives it investigates utopias in digital games as well as utopias of the digital game that is the role of ludic elements in scenarios of the future
