this book examines the reality of theological dissent in the catholic church in the decades since the second vatican council 1962 1965 and its relation to the problematic search for certainty and doctrinal consistency in addressing the complexities of moral decision making in the contemporary world concern for the fundamental dignity of the human person and the tension between obedience and the ultimate freedom in conscience of the believer within the boundaries of the institution have informed successive episodes of dissent and their attempted suppression in the post conciliar period neuralgic issues in sexual ethics feminist theology the role of women in the church and theologies of liberation have presented profound challenges to magisterial authority resulting in a fracturing of the faith community and the persistence of a progressive conservative divide the church s synodal turn meanwhile has presented new possibilities for a dialogical approach to dissent emphasizing discernment and principles of participation and co responsibility focusing on a dialectical approach to unsettled questions and inviting a diversity of theological expression equally however conservative dissent and entrenched opposition to the possibility of transposing hitherto adversarial postures into a more constructive and collaborative frame present a growing threat to unity in a polarized world now increasingly tempted by totalitarianism and losing the capacity for constructive disagreement the book will be of particular interest to scholars and general readers in theology ecclesiology and religious studies in foundations of re enchantment christopher coome tells an immersive and compelling story of the remarkable emergence of occult orginzations at the turn of the 19th century he chronicles how major occult sodalities grew like ripples the hermetic order of golden dawn the anthroposophical society and the ordo templi orientis these were some of the most delightfully bizarre magnetic and intellectually pyrotechnic individuals of the 19th century and their antics both intellectual and personal make for some of the most engaging moments in the development of contemporary spirituality
