with deep reverence i inscribe these lines my dear parents to you i see you now away beyond the seas beyond the lands where the sun goes down in the pacific like some great ship of fire resting still on the green hills watching your herds waiting where rolls the oregon and hears no sound save its own dashing nearly a quarter of a century ago you took me the long and lonesome half year s journey across the mighty continent wild and rent and broken up and sown with sand and ashes viii and crossed by tumbling wooded rivers that ran as if glad to get away fresh and strange and new as if but half fashioned from the hand of god all the time as i tread this strange land i re live those scenes and you are with me how dark and deep how sullen strong and lion like the mighty missouri rolled between his walls of untracked wood and cleft the unknown domain of the middle world before us
