for dear life chronicles feminist and artist carol jacobsen s deep commitment to the causes of justice and human rights and focuses a critical lens on an american criminal legal regime that imparts racist gendered and classist modes of punishment to women lawbreakers jacobsen s tireless work with and for women prisoners is charted in this rich assemblage of images and texts that reveal the collective strategies she and the prisoners have employed to receive justice the book gives evidence that women s lawbreaking is often an effort to survive gender based violence the faces letters and testimonies of dozens of incarcerated women with whom jacobsen has worked present a visceral yet politicized chorus of voices against the criminal legal systems that fail us all their voices are joined by those of leading feminist scholars in essays that illuminate the arduous methods of dissent that jacobsen and the others have employed to win freedom for more than a dozen women sentenced to life imprisonment and to free many more from torturous prison conditions the book is a document to jacobsen s love and lifelong commitment to creating feminist justice and freedom and to the efficacy of her artistic legal and extralegal political actions on behalf of women

this book explores the challenges of cross cultural translation of american literary works into arabic which i argue have prevented many nineteenth century literary works from being translated into arabic i have used the arabic translations of harriet beecher stowe s uncle tom s cabin and an abridged english text accompanying one of the translations as a case study since most of the arabic translations of english and especially american literary works are merely linguistic oriented ones i reinforce the importance of adopting a period specific cultural oriented approach that maintains the cultural context of american literary works including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements during the literary translation into the arabic culture i start with discussing the internationalization of american works and the importance of a cultural reading of these works reviewing many translations of english and american works in general i categorize the challenges of cross cultural literary translation from english into arabic into the following cultural religious geopolitical and gender based ones while i am not calling for accurate cross cultural literary translations since it is impossible however i am advocating for faithful translations which maintain the literary text s cultural and historical contexts the accuracy of a literary translation depends on the amount of linguistic skill a translator has while the faithfulness of a literary translation is based upon the translator s sincere effort to include the literary text s entire cultural context including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements using uncle tom s cabin as a case study i discuss how the previous challenges had negatively affected the translation process of the work despite the fact the work has been translated seven times into arabic due to the linguistic oriented approach the historical and cultural significance of stowe s novel has not yet been introduced to arab readers through translation due to the current era of globalization that demands individuals to have multicultural knowledge and understanding and due to the recent cultural and translation projects of literary works from english into arabic this book reinforces the importance and possibility of addressing the cultural religious geopolitical and gender based challenges while using uncle tom s cabin as an example
