the book first considers the use of gesture in the drama then proceeds to develop a theory on the meaning of gesture in the narrative this theory is then applied to kleist s michael kohlaas and kafka s der prozess both texts are subjected to a thorough formal analysis which considers the functional meaning of gesture and describes the peculiarities of each author s style the result of these analyses is compared in the light of previous scholarship and an opinion is offered on the alleged stylistic link between the two authors at a time when the state of poland was constantly undergoing political turmoil henryk sienkiewicz wasn t afraid to ruffle feathers having already achieved success in his career around the end of the 19th century the polish journalist negatively portrayed the teutonic order at a time in which his audience lived under german rule at the same time he meticulously included historical language in his works a sort of celebration of authenticity and the past he would earn a nobel prize in 1905 for outstanding merits as an epic writer sienkiewicz mastered historical novels that vividly put readers in places as distinct as 17th century poland and ancient rome he is still well regarded today for novels like with fire and sword the deluge quo vadis and fire in the steppe pan michael is a historical novel that takes place across eastern europe including poland turkey and the ukraine the environmental audit committee believes the government s 250 million compensation scheme to help energy intensive companies with the cost of carbon must be tightened up to avoid over compensating large companies already profiting from the over allocation of eu emissions trading system allowances the committee scrutinised the government s proposal for a compensation scheme to help offset some of the future electricity price rises that energy intensive industries will face as a result of the eu emissions trading system and the government s carbon price floor across europe a large surplus of emission allowances in the eu emissions trading system worth 4 1 billion euros had been accrued by large industrial companies as a result of pre recession overly optimistic forecasts of growth and fierce lobbying by heavy industry sales of these allowances had already raised 1 8 billion euros for these companies in the uk the government s proposed rules do not take the value of these excess allowances into account when calculating compensation the committee also calls for an energy intensive industries strategy as part of a wider uk manufacturing strategy to set out a path for their maximum feasible decarbonisation and help guide and support companies to reduce their dependence on fossil fuels such a strategy should identify by how much these industries can feasibly decarbonise and improve their energy efficiency and how the government will help to ensure that this is achieved including through energy consumption reduction measures and incentives and support for innovation technological research development and investment
