purchase of this book includes free trial access to million books com where you can read more than a million books for free this is an ocr edition with typos excerpt from book chapter section 4chapter first the doctrine of natural faith a distinction to be made between natural and religions faith a full knowledge of religions faith implies some antecedent knowledge of natural faith natural faith or belief arises naturally and necessarily on its appropriate occasions is known chiefly by a reference to our own consciousness illustrations of its nature exists in different degrees does not concentrate attention upon itself its power all men have faith but it cannot be said with truth that all men have religious faith all men have faith in something but it is not true that all men have faith in god it is proper therefore to make a distinction and to discriminate between religious faith and natural faith 2 in order however to understand religious faith it is desirable as it seems to me to understand something of the nature or character of natural faith our attention therefore is properly directed in the first place to the inquiry what is natural faith and in the prosecution of this inquiry an obvious remark here is that faith or belief which is only another name for the same thing arises within us naturally and necessarily on its appropriate occasions in other words it does not depend for its origin on our volition but it comes of itself it does not depend for instance upon a man s volition or his mere arbitrary choice whether he shall believe in his own existence or not whether he shall believe in his personal identity or not whether he shall believe in the existence of an outward material world or not in these cases and in others like them it is conceded that he cannot help believing the state of mind therefore which we denominate faith or belief using the terms in the natural and not in the securing of the spiritual comforts of believers in this life is a matter of the highest importance unto the glory of god and their own advantage by the gospel writes the great puritan john owen for god is abundantly willing that all the heirs of promise should receive strong consolation and he has provided ways and means for the communication of it to them and their participation of it is their principal interest in this world and is so esteemed by them but their effectual refreshing enjoyment of these comforts is variously opposed by the power of the remainders of sin in conjunction with other temptations hence notwithstanding their right and title unto them by the gospel they are oftentimes actually destitute of a gracious sense of them and consequently of that relief which they are suited to afford in all their duties trials and afflictions now the root whereon all real comforts do grow whence they spring and arise is true and saving faith the faith of god s elect wherefore they do ordinarily answer unto and hold proportion with the evidences which any have of that faith in themselves at least they cannot be maintained without such evidences wherefore that we may be a little useful unto the establishment or recovery of that consolation which god is so abundantly willing that all the heirs of promise should enjoy i shall inquire what are the principal acts and operations of faith whereby it will evidence its truth and sincerity in the midst of all temptations and storms that may befall believers in this world and i shall insist on such alone as will bear the severest scrutiny by scripture and experience this puritan classic includes the following chapters introduction i how does saving faith approve of this way on what accounts and unto what ends ii the second evidence of the faith of god s elect iii the third evidence of the faith of god s elect iv the fourth evidence of the faith of god s elect this remarkable book is a gift of treasure written to help increase your spiritual understanding have you ever wondered why your faith is not working for you or how to exercise your faith in god or how does my faith relate to god and his kingdom and or my circumstances what does faith really involve and how can i apply my faith to work for me in this power packed book louis parks helps you unlock the kingdom of heaven that is within you filled with scriptural references and revelation of the word of god your eyes will be opened like never before and your faith will be elevated to higher dimensions this book will teach you how the power of god operates from within you and how it relates to your role as a believer both new and old this book will also help eliminate many of the frustrations that are caused by a lack of knowledge and understanding when it comes to building your faith according to the word of god faith a connection of god s power is a cutting edge book that will stir a new level of faith in today's world whether you are a new christian or a longtime friend of god you will truly be blessed by bill vincent's simple teachings through this book in his passionate desire to see believers walk in the supernatural bill vincent has put together this book faith a connection of god's power to stir up believers into greater dimensions of spiritual manifestation bill experienced the faith teaching for the first ten years of his ministry everyone was preaching the faith message and bill spent over ten years of his ministry avoiding that subject it was in his heart that all that could have been taught was taught on the simple subject of faith in mid 2015 bill found god moving him to preach on faith nearly every week now after a long anticipation for the fresh release on this subject we hope you enjoy faith a connection of god's power
