painfully honest nouwen's prayers, confessions and petitions point to the final goal of all spiritual life to live unceasingly in the presence of God like the wounded healer and the return of the prodigal son. A cry for mercy is filled with freshness and insight; it speaks directly to the contemporary Christian's need for a meaningful spirituality, a disciplined inner life and a real sense of the divine presence in everyday life.

The journey to greatness can be very difficult outside the mercy of God because of some situations and circumstances. Some people have been destined for a vessel of dishonor; some people's ancestors might have made negative covenants that will affect the generations to come. Some are laboring under unknown curses; some have done some evil deeds in the past that may be crying against them. The prayer of mercy can change the situation; mercy opens heaven on our prayer; mercy prevails over the judgment of the enemies; mercy draws the attention of God to us; mercy makes God forgive our sins and show us kindness; mercy opens the door for miracles. There is no issue that you cry for mercy in your life that will not turn to a miracle. The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness. The mercy of God is the anchor of deliverance for humanity.

Lord, have mercy, a raw plea for intervention, the most common prayer in the Bible and most remarkably a request that God has never failed to grant, often in surprising ways that have radically transformed individual lives and the trajectory of history itself.
