discuss such in and out movements that occur in the process of reading as the alternation between immersion and interactivity and between role playing and unmasking unlike most reader theorists travis is concerned with the agency of the reader her conception of agency in reading is informed by performance psychoanalytic and feminist theories this agency involves compulsive reiterative performance in which readers attempt to find themselves by going outside the self engaging in literary role playing in the hope of finally and fully identifying the self through self differentiation furthermore readers never escape a social context they are both constructed and actively constructing in that they read as part of interpretive communities and are involved in collaborative creativity or what kendall walton calls collective imagining and political commitments and in the vision of history at the same time pound s poetic practices particularly his collage techniques and series of englishes overflowed his political ideology it is this overflow that makes him so fascinating to intellectuals and the main reason we study his work with respect now
