abraham kuyper 1837 1920 is a significant figure in the history of the netherlands and one of the most remarkable figures in the annals of calvinism kuyper celebrated the reformed founders subscribed heart and soul to their teachings and worked ceaselessly to restore their authority in an age that had either forgotten them or contradicted their word from their theology kuyper extruded a whole worldview and by that worldview he hoped to refashion the politics scholarship art and social arrangements of his time calvinism was his soul and system the purest form of christianity the treasure of the past the hope of the future this anthology published in the centennial year of kuyper s famous stone lectures gathers sixteen key writings by kuyper never before available in english included are his definitive statements on politics education culture and the religious currents and social problems of his time also included are kuyper s own conversion narrative his critiques of modernism and of holiness theology his proposals on common grace and calvinist politics his reflections on a culture in thrall to pantheism and evolution and his classic address on sphere sovereignty in his introduction editor james bratt sets kuyper s work in its 19th century context and shows the relevance of his ideas to contemporary debates on modernism evangelicalism and fundamentalism bratt also provides helpful explanatory notes and a brief introduction to each piece photographs cartoons and short excerpts from some of kuyper s better known works make this an attractive volume that will stand as the definitive kuyper anthology for years to come protestant theology and modernity in the nineteenth century netherlands examines how dutch protestant thinkers and theologians met the challenges of the rapidly modernizing world around them it shows that the nineteenth century saw theology fundamentally transformed and reinvented in a variety of ways enlightenment values were fiercely attacked by orthodox pietists but embraced by modern theologians positions were not fixed and theologians had to work hard to maintain their intellectual integrity jewish isaac da costa converted to christianity and fulminated against the zeitgeist allard pierson who in his youth had been under the spell of da costa resigned from his ministry and adopted an agnostic stance abraham kuyper modernized theology and politics by laying the foundations of pillarization the segmented social structures based on differences in religion and worldview of dutch society abraham kuenen revolutionized the study of the old testament and protestant theologians made ground breaking contributions to the emerging science of religion this book used in depth studies of a small number of significant and influential protestant thinkers to analyse how they addressed specific modern transformation processes such as political modernization the pluralization of world views and the emergence of critical historical scholarship it also considers the significant dutch contribution to the historical critical study of the bible and the emergence of the modern comparative study of religion the french revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology although the french revolution s momentum was felt across europe and north america it met a particularly interesting response in the netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo calvinist movement in that context the likes of groen van prinsterer abraham kuyper and herman bavinck responded to the french revolution s ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways this book approaches that dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the french revolution and the development of neo calvinism beginning with historical portraits of bavinck and kuyper in relation to the revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo calvinism and the revolution neo calvinist and revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between kuyperian theology and kieslowski s three colours trilogy and a contemporary neo calvinist critique of french laïcité this book forms part of a wider project neo calvinism supported by the theologische universiteit kampen and the vu university amsterdam while studies in neo calvinism have focused primarily on its political and philosophical insights its theology has received less attention in neo calvinism a theological introduction cory c brock and n gray sutanto present the unique dogmatic contributions of the tradition each chapter focuses on a distinct theological aspect such as revelation creation salvation and ecclesiology neo calvinism produced rich theological work that yields promise for contemporary dogmatics this book invites readers into this rich theological trajectory students of reformed theology recognize that abraham kuyper was one of the premier theologians of the last two centuries he was also a notable politician founding the antirevolutionary party and serving as a member of the dutch parliament and eventually becoming prime minister of the netherlands he produced a body of neo calvinist political thought that has enduring value for the political engagement of the christian community in our time his political theory stands in continuity with john calvin s doctrine of the church and social reformation even as the current james madison s teaching on church and state impacted it while contemporary kuyperians at times reflect a leftward political orientation kuyper was a champion of political conservatism who stood in the trajectory of fundamental conservative principles affirmed by edmund burke and more recently by ronald reagan he believed that the conservative emphasis upon natural law the need for limited government and the importance of freedom was rooted in biblical revelation and was therefore valid for all nations at all times pastor politician and dutch neo calvinist theologian abraham kuyper s lectures on the role of christian faith in politics science and art have become a touchstone of contemporary reformed theology revisiting these lectures jessica and robert joustra bring together theologians historians scientists and others to consider kuyper s ongoing importance and complex legacy for today
