believe it or not your kids want to talk to you about the social and health challenges they re facing but are you ready jessica peck a pediatric nurse practitioner and mom of four helps parents escape the secrecy and shame surrounding tough conversations and approach them from a christian foundation today's teens are feeling more isolated, anxious, and depressed than previous generations and are struggling with more complex challenges. Jessica Peck, DNP, APRN, has spent countless hours advising and encouraging parents after talking to their teens behind closed doors in the privacy of her exam room. She has treated teens with mental illnesses, responded to suicide attempts, treated self-harm wounds, as well as the emotional trauma of cyberbullying, sexting, pornography, addictions, and numerous other issues. Through it all, Jessica found that teens really want to talk to their parents but don't know how. Jessica seeks to move the private conversations that happen in the clinic to relationship-building conversations at home behind closed doors. This is a guided lifeline to help you strengthen your connection with your kids. You will be able to get professional advice on tough teenage issues from a medical perspective, as well as the true stories of patients. Discover suggested settings, activities, and question prompts to give you conversation keys to unlock doors for open dialogue on tough issues with your teens. Share a time of reflection with devotional readings, relevant Bible verses, scripture-based prayers, themed music playlists, and more prompts to write 12 legacy letters, a generational keepsake for teens covering topics including mental health, social media, suicide, sexting, gender identity, substance abuse, with a chapter focusing on vaping and more. Jessica Peck's book will encourage and strengthen all parents, married, single, or divorced; grandparents, stepparents, godparents, bonus parents, adopted parents, anyone who is serving a parental role in a teen's life.

Great kids don't just happen. If there are children in your life, you need Dr. Smolen's research and wisdom. Physically and emotionally healthy children are great kids.
