a strong quota based and adequately resourced imf at the center of the global financial safety net is essential to safeguard global financial stability in an uncertain and shock prone world building on three years of committee of the whole meetings executive directors feedback and recent guidance from the international monetary and financial committee imfc this paper sets out for consideration of the executive board a proposal for the conclusion of the sixteenth general review of quotas 16th review with a 50 percent quota increase allocated to members in proportion to their quotas equiproportional increase the paper includes for the executive board s approval a report by the executive board to the board of governors bog on such an increase including a draft bog resolution the proposed increase in quotas once in effect would replace bilateral borrowing agreements and be linked to a rollback in credit arrangements under the new arrangements to borrow in order to maintain the fund s lending capacity the proposed quota increase would strengthen the quota based nature of the fund by reducing its reliance on borrowing thus ensuring the primary role of quotas in fund resources transitional arrangements for borrowed resources may be needed to maintain the fund s lending capacity beyond 2024 until the quota increase becomes effective given significant differences in views among members about the quota formula and how to implement a realignment of quota shares the proposed equiproportional distribution of the quota increase would leave quota shares of members unchanged at this time however the membership has signaled the urgency and importance of quota share realignment to better reflect members relative positions in the world economy while protecting the quota shares of the poorest members thus the proposed bog resolution includes guidance building on the recent imfc discussions namely to work to develop by june 2025 possible approaches as a guide for further quota realignment including through a new quota formula this work would begin after conclusion of the 16th review the speeches made by officials attending the imf world bank annual meetings are published in this volume along with the press communiqués issued by the international monetary and financial committee and the development committee at the conclusion of the meetings this paper outlines that many countries have only begun to recover from the devastation of war and the reconstruction of their economic and monetary systems will take several years the wartime economic controls of many members of the imf are still in force concrete measures for international economic cooperation in spheres other than the financial are not as far advanced as had earlier been hoped international political cooperation leaves much to be desired a number of countries particularly in europe and the far east find their international economic position seriously deteriorated as a result of the war their first task is to restore agricultural and industrial production on a modern and efficient basis and to bring it into line with the new requirements of the market although foreign aid has been of great assistance it is important to recognize that recovery in the occupied countries has depended and will continue to depend primarily on their own efforts
