my book of art craft

this collection of 19 original essays argues for a critical and sustained engagement between the fields of craft and heritage the book's interdisciplinary and international array of authors consider how heritage and craft institutions policies practices and audiences encounter the constraints and opportunities of production recognition and exhibition case studies spanning 125 years raise and address questions concerning authenticity and commodification innovation and improvisation diasporas and decolonization global economies and national and professional identities authors also analyse mechanisms through which craft mobilises and has been harnessed by heritage processes and designations examples range from an irish village at the 1893 chicago world s fair and the role of chronopolitics in contemporary vietnamese pottery to the invisibility of crochet within swedish heritagisation processes and the application of game theory in a ceramics museum with section one considering citizenship and identity section two sustainability and section three dynamic craft in cultural institutions craft and heritage interrogates how craft objects makers and processes intersect with current heritage concerns and practices in the persistence of craft contributors discuss the development of not only six specific crafts glass ceramics jewelry wood textiles and metal but also the trends and movements that have helped shape their developments includes 180 full color illustrations art craft and theology in fourth century christian authors analyses christian greek literature in the fourth century in order to emphasise the style ingenuity and craftsmanship demonstrated by the authors of such texts it considers the way these wordsmiths used classical literature techniques to strengthen their theological writings what is craft how is it different from fine art or design in a theory of craft howard risatti examines these issues by comparing handmade ceramics glass metalwork weaving and furniture to painting sculpture photography and machine made design from bauhaus to the memphis group he describes craft as uniquely blending function with a deeper expression of human values that transcend culture time and space craft must articulate a role for itself in contemporary society says risatti otherwise it will be absorbed by fine art or design and its singular approach to understanding the world will be lost big book of art craft comprises activities which are simple easy and fun filled for young creative kids the activities make use of colours papers and scrap material to create interesting works of art the activities in the book help children develop fine motor skills creative skills and learn the art of recycling the reward stickers inside the book encourage children to complete each activity with perfection and achieve the best this is the first comprehensive survey of crafts worldwide the techniques used in a particular craft from backstrap weaving and papercutting to metal casting and wood carving as well as their history are explained and illustrated highlighting an incredible and dazzling diversity of styles the book is organized geographically with six sections spanning the world with each section subdivided into different crafts showing nearly 90 altogether complete with over 500 illustrations a glossary bibliography information on museums and an index this survey is an essential document for anyone concerned with art craft and decorative objects from diversity comes strength and wisdom this was the guiding principle for selecting the articles in this collection because there is no single voice identity history or cultural experience that represents the women of the first nations a realistic picture will have many facets accordingly the authors in women of the first nations include native and non native scholars feminists and activists from across canada their work examines various aspects of aboriginal women s lives from a variety of theoretical and personal perspectives they discuss standard media representations as well as historical and current realities they bring new perspectives to discussions on aboriginal art literature historical and cultural contributions and they offer diverse viewpoints on present economic environmental and political issues this collection counters the marginalization and silencing of first nations women s voices and reflects the power strength and wisdom inherent in their lives
