Mr. Bell taught for over twenty five and has been an elementary classroom teacher, music teacher, chapter coordinator, assistant principal, and principal all in the Houston Independent School District. Currently, he is the director of the Bel Lin's Music Studio in Houston, Texas. Mr. Bell's avocation and passion for church music has been around for four decades where he has served in the Houston and neighboring communities and frequently serves as a musical consultant for local, state, and regional religious and civic organizations. He also is the author of a semi-autobiography about growing up in Houston entitled Kids Can't Be Kids Anymore. He has recorded two CD recordings of inspirational music. He has composed one major religious Easter cantata work entitled Hear the Word of the Lord, premiere ecumenical performance in 1987 at the Saint Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Houston, Texas, and in 1992 at the Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church, Houston. He also is the composer of many songs sung in the Black worship service. His favorite and most well-liked is The Lord is My Shepherd. He has sung with the Houston Symphony Choral Chorus under the direction of the late Virginia Babikian and Dr. Charles Hausman. He received the National Reading is Fundamental Award, Leaders in Literacy Award in 1994 in Houston, Texas. Those who know the author have often described him as being very talented, inquisitive, very ambitious, a computer whiz, enthusiast, an outgoing fellow, very diligent, and energetic. He always wears an incessant smile, is quite humorous, and is always willing to help others whenever he can. He is very versatile. Mrs. Elnoir Walton of Houston, Texas, says of Mr. Bell, "The author presents himself as a Christian person who has the love of God in him and reflects this in his conversation and actions. He has a pleasing personality that everyone who is around him enjoys." The author is married to the former Linda Joyce Fuller of Houston, Texas, and is the father of Rakeisha Monet, son-in-law Cedric, and John II Jr. They reside in Southeast Houston. Mr. Bell enjoys several hobbies for both relaxation and inspiration: they are oil painting, cooking, reading, socializing, and traveling. Some of his future aspirations are to have a showing of his oil paintings, to publish a piano course book, and to establish an urban music academy utilizing some of the latest developments in the music world.

With their rich and complicated history, spirituals hold a special place in the American musical tradition. This soul-stirring musical form is irresistible to singers seeking to diversify their performance repertoire, but it is also riddled with controversy, especially for singers of non-African descent. Singer and historian Randye Jones welcomes singers of all backgrounds into the style while she explores its folk song roots and transformation into choral and solo vocal concert repertoire. Profiling key composers and pioneers of the genre, Jones also discusses the use of dialect and other controversial performance considerations. Contributed chapters address elements of collaborative piano, studio teaching, choral arrangement, voice science, and vocal health as they apply to the performance of spirituals.
