al māturīdī d 944 ce the prominent hanafi scholar from samarqand succeeded in formulating a theological doctrine which is widely accepted in sunni islam to this day the present volume which is a revised english translation of the german original published in 1997 examines his teachings by describing their principal characteristics and situating them in the history of kalām part one investigates the development of hanafi thought in transoxania before māturīdī s time part two deals with the other religious groups in particular the mu tazilites which emerged in this area during his lifetime part three shows how he explained and defended the position of his predecessors in doing so he reformed their traditional views thereby developing his own theology which then became the basis of a new tradition viz the māturīdite school the famed reform debates at al azhar madrasa in nineteenth century cairo one of the most influential centres of religious study in sunni islam were enormously influential for twentieth century islamic thought here indira gesink offers a revisionist history of these debates over curricular and administrative reforms and challenges our understanding of the struggle between islamic reform and conservatism it has been assumed that famous islamic modernists such as muhammad abduh instigated the reform movement and the ideas of modern religious life that emanated from al azhar and permeated islamic society a development that religious conservatives opposed gesink draws on obscure but important archival sources legal manuals and ephemeral journals to tell the other side of the story and to illustrate the important contributions of conservative scholars to the evolution of twentieth century sunni islam conservative opponents of reform engaged many of the same issues as reformers and actively pursued alternative visions of reform in fact texts of enacted reforms show greater attention to concerns of conservatives than to the original programmes of muhammad abduh and conservatives led ulama committees that generated and implemented reforms had religious conservatives not contributed to the reforms of the early twentieth century these reforms would have lacked the crucial cultural assonance that permitted them to become rooted in public life in an environment of rising nationalist anti british sentiment which saw abduh as a willing agent of colonialists the debates ultimately catalyzed public acceptance of secularism islamic modernism and radical islamism they also led to the practice of lay legal interpretation the proliferation of competing interpretations within sunni islam and the rise of militant sects by drawing on obscure archival sources and restoring conservative voices to the debate islamic reform and conservatism presents a more nuanced picture of the al azhar debates and the forces that shaped islamic religious life in the twentieth century than has become the norm its original scholarship and fresh analysis make this book indispensable for all those interested in the modern middle east religious history islamic studies radical islam and militancy secularism modernism and religious reform
