the demand for this book has come from the students in the classroom who have listened to these lectures on the great doctrines of the bible and have desired and requested that they be put into permanent form for the purpose of further study and reference this volume is prepared therefore primarily but not exclusively for the student and with his needs in mind the doctrines herein treated are dealt with from the standpoint of biblical rather than dogmatic theology this is evident from the plan which is followed in the work namely to gather together all the scripture passages dealing with the subject under consideration and from them choose a required number that may be called representative then seek to understand the meaning of these references by the study of the text itself as well as its context and parallel passages and finally from the selected proof texts formulate the doctrinal teaching and place such results under appropriate headings the doctrines of god jesus christ and the holy spirit are more fully dealt with than the doctrines which follow this is especially true of the doctrine of god the reason for this is to set forth the method pursued in these studies and to give a pattern for the study of the doctrines to follow it is intended that the doctrines of this book should be studied side by side with the open bible it is for this reason that many of the scripture references are indicated by chapter and verse only there must be constant reference to the scriptures themselves

his systemized study and analysis of the major bible doctrines provides for readers dr lockyer s approach to understanding doctrines in logical sequence this method of biblical presentation can and should lead to a valuable comprehension of the christian faith the great doctrines of the bible is comprised of a series of essay lectures given to students the subject matter is covered from a biblical rather than a dogmatic perspective the table of contents includes 1 the doctrine of god 2 the doctrine of jesus christ 3 the doctrine of the holy spirit 4 the doctrine of man 5 the doctrines of salvation repentance faith regeneration justification adoption sanctification prayer 6 the doctrine of the church 7 the doctrine of the scriptures 8 the doctrine of angels 9 the doctrine of satan 10 the doctrine of the last things the second coming of christ the resurrection the judgment the destiny of the wicked the reward of the righteous there is no question that we live in an age of weak theology and casual christianity we have substituted intuition for truth feeling for belief and immediate gratification for enduring hope evangelicalism desperately needs to return to the doctrines that once before reformed the world radical depravity unconditional election particular redemption efficacious grace and persevering grace james boice and philip ryken not only provide a compelling exposition on these doctrines of grace but also look briefly at their historical impact the authors leave no doubt that the church suffers when these foundational truths are neglected and that she must return to a christianity that is practical minded kind hearted and most importantly biblically based

with a thoroughly biblical approach coupled with clarity of thought and expression on the doctrines of grace this text is the perfect primer for a weak and ailing christian church christian
