explains literary forms used in scripture myth gospel parable allegory letter and others and shows how this knowledge is important in interpreting the bible after reading some scripture verses recently i thought how amazing they were i often say in my head wow then i thought why not see how many others i can come up with this book is not comprehensive for it would have been about 10 volumes so i have cut down drastically as with all my books i would like to think people will read question research themselves and write their own notes although any words spoken by the godhead are amazing i have restricted the verses in this small book to what i personally consider to have the wow factor even though as i write this it feels as if i am demeaning any verses i have omitted hopefully as with anything i write i would like to think that if the reader has their own favourites they will look at them again and see why they have a special meaning and if inclined to do so write their own notes or even a book over 2 000 times in the old testament there are phrases such as and god spoke to mooses or the word of the lord came to jonah or god said that s just the references to god i have drastically cut down the verses where god and jesus spoke you are holding in your hand a devotional book to help children and grown ups learn and memorize scripture and learn how to pray on each page you will find 4 sections a portion of scripture a thought for the day based on that scripture a prayer for the child to pray and then space for them to write out their very own prayer at the very bottom of each page there is space to write more or even draw
