the south east plan contains an annual target fro new homes that provides a benchmark which can be reviewed sub regions will have their own targets that allow local circumstances to be taken into account but the regional overview is valuable to ensure consistency and to enable review of the regional target as a whole it is important that any review of housing targets in the south east takes into account the range of numbers put forward their underlying reasons and the consequences of not meeting any decided targets the economic downturn has meant that fewer homes are being built and there are concerns that the lack of infrastructure provision alongside housing development is stopping schemes from making progress the committee recommends that the government review the funding mechanisms currently available for this infrastructure it feels it is important that the homes and communities agency is given the resources it needs in future years the committee also acknowledges that while focusing development on brownfield land is important to stimulate regeneration there must be care that concentrating development in such areas does not have adverse effects such as using up urban land or valuable urban greenspace the committee also recommends that greater attention be paid to alternative models for providing housing land that the region provides the right mix of homes and that the government stick to its timetable for the code for sustainable homes ensuring that all housing has a zero carbon rating by 2016

wendy feels abandoned and alone in a cold northeastern college town surrounded by the untroubled youth of her generation she has escaped the bleak existence of her past caring for a father wallowing in alcoholism and self pity but she shares nothing in common with the carefree crowd around her finally convinced that her abdominal pain is the cancer that stole her beloved mother she seeks aid and solace at the emergency room despair compounds wendys depression when she discovers that she is carrying a child guilt wracks her as she struggles with her infidelities and shame humbles her before the handsome young intern so anxious to help her teetering on the edge of a high cliff of helplessness grace rescues her in the coincidence of the young intern and the miracle of the animate child within her the faith she learns to embrace from the unborn blessing in her womb propels her from an existence of desperation to a life of unforeseen joy and promise in this rich cultural history pamela roberston wojcik examines america s ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness she considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless mobile rather than fixed characters who fail resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one s own from the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 oscar winning nomadland wojcik reveals a tension in the american imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of american cinema reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to american cinema and the american story all along
