the key to a balanced and accurate understanding of the book of ecclesiastes lies in the inter dependent relationships between the prominent motifs within the book an analysis of the inter dependency of the prominent motifs within the book of qohelet explores this dynamic the final outcome of such an approach is a wisdom based paradigm for living under the sun a wise man s approach to living in a fallen world qohelet s conclusions are two fold and balanced first in light of the fact that life is fleeting death is inevitable and one s future lies outside of the realm of human control the wise will enjoy life as a gift from god recognizing that joy is ultimately a responsibility and a mandate placed upon them second in light of the fact that life is fleeting death is inevitable and god s enigmatic ways on earth are sure to be followed by an equitable future judgment the wise will fear god and keep his commandments therefore the wise man or woman will enjoy life but not enjoy sin living each day to its fullest but in sobriety knowing that for all our actions there is a coming judgment this is the wisdom of ecclesiastes the writing style of a number of authors writing in english was empirically investigated to detect stylistic patterns in relation to advancing age the aim was to identify the type of stylistic markers among lexical syntactical phonemic entropic character based and content ones most able to discriminate between early middle and late works of the selected authors and the best classification or prediction algorithm most suited for this task a pilot examination of personal letters and poetry by christina georgina rossetti and edgar allan poe suggested that authors and genres vary inconsistently examination of selected variables on shakespeare s plays which emphasised their predictive power led to four experiments on personal correspondence and poetry from edna st vincent millay and william butler yeats the methods used were stepwise multiple linear regression regression trees ordinal logistic regression and artificial neural networks prediction was found influenced by method authorship and genre whereas classification was found sensitive to all factors given the current experiments generalizable conclusions for the wider author population have been avoided over the last twenty years the humanities and social sciences have been preoccupied with the powers and limitations of language during these years literary theory has become peculiarly fascinated with what language cannot do with the impossibility of language meaning what the individual intends it to mean if indeed individuals can intend or mean but language does exist and does appear to be useful in communicating and most of the time those who use the same language feel they are successful in communicating with each other in interpretive acts rather than ask whether communication is possible professor harris explores the issues that arise from the question how does communication occur in this he draws on a variety of fields which have contributed to literary theory by the study of strategies for expressing and for interpreting intended meanings discourse analysis sociolinguists philosophy of language and rhetorical theory for language to be understood there has to be a mutually understood context professor harris argues that there are seven dimensions of context in terms of which an author calculates readers responses having defined the goal of interpretation as the author s intended meaning criticism is then seen in terms of the question what does it mean that the author meant that meaning
