this title was first published in 2003 this work provides a clearer understanding of the eu s approach towards security in the mediterranean after examining the eu s interests and the potential threats to security in the region it analyzes eu security policy towards the region as a whole through the euro mediterranean partnership and towards all disputes and conflicts in the area it recommends opening up the european security and defence policy to mediterranean participation in order to establish a deep and equitable security partnership between both shores the book argues that this way the eu could implement its innovative comprehensive and co operative approach to security rather than focusing on the military aspect alone this approach takes into account all dimensions of security political socio economic cultural and ecological and is based on partnership rather than confrontation it therefore contrasts quite sharply with the policies advocated in the us national security strategy in december 2003 the eu adopted the european security strategy the first ever common strategic vision of the member states this volume examines how the strategy can form the basis of a comprehensive approach that integrates all dimensions of eu external action from aid and trade to defence under the same agenda of effective multilateralism or global governance this agenda can be translated into the core public goods to which every individual on earth is entitled promoting access to these global public goods can be the essence of a distinctive european approach emphasizing long term stabilization and conflict prevention on that basis the strategy can be a global agenda for positive power global because of its worldwide scope and comprehensive nature for an eu with effective power to achieve positive objectives the book will appeal to audiences interested in the eu as an international actor foreign policy security and defence development and trade it is also suitable for policy makers in the eu institutions and the member states european foreign policy in an evolving international system provides the reader with an updated assessment of european foreign policy fifteen years after maastricht the contributions analyze the level of policy convergence achieved by eu member states in crucial areas and regions of the world this title is aimed at policy practitioners and students it contains the full history of local government in britain and examines the politicisation of local government a brief history of more than 250 parties who have contested parliamentary elections since 1832 along with details of contact information and electoral performance this volume examines election by election background key issues major personalities conduct of the campaign results and evaluation analysis of the status of that election in the overall history of politics and literature of that election
