Expectations and Aspirations What Does God Want of Us Anyway? Heart to Heart—The Journey Outward Annie's Promise Promise of Annie Wildest Hearts Safaa El Tayeb El-Kogali Mark Dever Robert P. Vande Kappelle Beverly Anne Perry Garland T. Lee (author) Jayne Ann Krentz education which has been at the heart of the middle east and north africa mena region s history and civilizations for centuries has a large untapped potential to contribute to human capital well being and wealth the region has invested heavily in education for decades but it has not been able to reap the benefits of its investments despite a series of reforms mena has remained stuck in a low learning low skills level expectations and aspirations a new framework for education in the middle east and north africa identifies four key sets of tensions that are holding back education in the region credentials and skills discipline and inquiry control and autonomy and tradition and modernity these tensions are shaped by society and are reflected in classrooms if they are not addressed mena will continue to operate at a level below its potential this report outlines a new framework with a three pronged approach that can help address these tensions and unleash the potential of education in mena a concerted push for learning that starts early for all children regardless of background with qualified and motivated educators and that leverages technology uses modern approaches and monitors learning outcomes a stronger pull for skills by all stakeholders in the labor market and society that involves coordinated multisystem reforms within and beyond the education system a new pact for education at the national level with a unified vision shared responsibilities and accountabilities education is not just the responsibility of the education system it is everyone's business the push pull and pact framework offers an opportunity for mena to move forward to reclaim its heritage of a learned region and to meet the expectations and aspirations of its people the current situation in mena requires a renewed focus on education not just as a national priority for economic growth and social development but as a national emergency for stability peace and prosperity originally delivered as sermons by pastor mark dever at capitol hill baptist church in washington dc these three studies are now available in one hardcover volume dever guides readers to take a step back and look at the bible from a broader perspective as we notice new features of an object when viewed from a distance so too the major themes of scripture become more apparent when we take in the bible as a whole part of the ixmarks series this book considers the central messages of the bible as seen in the promises of god dever examines the general narrative of god's word to answer the question what does god wants of us anyway readers looking for a panoramic view of scripture will be reminded of the faithful persistent love of god and find themselves drawn into a broader but deeper understanding of the maker and keeper of promises whether religiously theists atheists agnostics or simply seekers each of us is on a journey of faith spiraling through stages seasons or phases of spirituality on this journey we discover that spirituality is more caught than taught and that faith enriched more by subtraction than by addition is more about unlearning than learning at the center of jesus life and message stands the exhortation to receive and share divine love the two volumes of heart to heart excerpted from dr vande kappelle s published writings examine the meaning and implications of the biblical great commandment to love god and others as oneself whereas the first volume examines the spiritual journey inward this companion volume examines the journey outward ultimately there is only one spiritual journey the journey godward and there is only one commandment divine love is the key to everything unloved people misbehave fail to love or fail to change loved people aren t concerned with rules regulations or beliefs rather because they are loved they take proper care of themselves and in so doing care for nature and others as extensions of themselves heart to heart is written for those who affirm the value of lifelong spiritual growth realize the limits of logic and embrace the paradoxes in life if you are willing to commit less than ten minutes a day over a seven month period you will undertake a spiritual journey of epic proportions guaranteed to transform you morally and spiritually in addition you will come to embrace christianity as the transformative movement envisioned by jesus for humanity a way of life grounded in compassion justice service humility and love of others this book is a warning to all men that don t know what women are really like it tells you what to watch out for and how to see what might happen if you don t follow my advice it will tell you why i m qualified to write this book from growing up with three older sisters working at a factory and going overseas some won t believe what they read but i assure you that everything in the book is true women will say no way but they want to keep men in the dark they don t want you to know how bad they really are and let me tell you they are bad they make men look like young boy scouts
