i had a dog and a cat is a delightfully charming book originally written in czech featuring gorgeous black and white illustrations this is the perfect storybook to share with little ones who love animals first published in 1940 this wonderful volume is a collation of short children s stories about our most beloved pets cats and dogs i had a dog and a cat was written and illustrated by czech brothers josef and karel Čapek the comic storybook was then translated into english by czech couple marie and robert weatherall the stories featured in this volume include minda or the breeding of dogs ben benji blackie and bibi iris dashenka the dog show more about dogs and about cats too

a dog tries to persuade a cat that they can be friends due to their obvious frailties an old dog and a fat cat manage to coexist relatively peacefully when a cat lists all the rhyming reasons that dogs are not good pets there is one final reason to have a dog for a friend stimulus class formation has been studied independently by two groups of researchers one group has come out of a learning theory approach while the second has developed out of a behavior analytic tradition the purpose of the present volume is to further establish the ties between these two research areas while allowing for differences in approach to the questions asked the book is loosely organized around four themes the first two sections deal with what constitutes functional and equivalence classes in animals and humans in the third section the authors attempt to identify stimulus control variables that contribute to the formation of equivalences classes the last section deals with the complex issue of the role of verbal behavior in equivalence classes the goal of the book is to provide the reader with a better understanding of the current state of research and theory in stimulus class formation it is also hoped that it will stimulate research into how and under what conditions stimulus classes can form illustrates the concept of opposites by depicting one day in the household of a family and their busy dog and cat max the dog is sick today but have no fear baby cakes the cat is happy to take his place but when the book tells her to dig a hole fetch a stick and guard the sheep the cat responds in very un doglike ways back cover everyone knows that cats are bullies they hiss arch their backs and steal dogs food at least that's what the dog thinks little does he know the cat has similar negative feelings about dogs how will these two learn to live on the same farm this relatable fiction book teaches readers the importance of always treating others with civility charming illustrations of the barnyard and its many animals transport readers to the heart of the action this accessible text and its important message of respect are perfect for young readers and listeners sandy and her fellow dog friend rascal happily spend their days wrestling and chasing each other but one day they decide they need a little excitement and venture to a fence where they soon encounter tiger a cat who loves to chat after sandy and rascal invite the cat over the fence to play the dogs learn all about the things cats like to do from playing with string to exploring the world to sharpening claws on a tree the dogs soon realize that cats are a lot like them only even more curious in this colorful children s story two bored dogs meet a friendly cat who teaches them how to live in harmony and embrace the joys of true friendship
