the exposition of the apocalypse by Tyconius of Carthage fl 380 was pivotal in the history of interpretation of the book of revelation while expositors of the second and third centuries viewed the apocalypse of John or book of revelation as mainly about the time of antichrist and the end of the world in the late fourth century Tyconius interpreted John's visions as figurative of the struggles facing the church throughout the entire period between the incarnation and the second coming of Christ Tyconius's ecclesiastical reading of the apocalypse was highly regarded by early medieval commentators like Caesarius of Arles Primasius of Hadrumetum Bede and Beatus of Liebana who often quoted from Tyconius's exposition in their own apocalypse commentaries unfortunately no
