even though islam is a major religion with more than one billion followers worldwide and more than six million in the united states alone there s still uncertainty and misunderstanding about its ideas tenets and practice understanding islam and the people who believe in it has become crucially important in the greater world this set seeks to foster understanding and answer questions the completely updated and expanded study of the moslem world from its earliest roots to today s headlines complete with glossary bibliography and index this book is engrossing reading for all seeking a clearer understanding of the moslem world since the events of september 11 2001 students and people everywhere are filled with questions about islam what do muslims believe who is osama bin laden what is a jihad even though islam is a major religion with more than one billion followers worldwide and more than six million in the united states alone there is still uncertainty and misunderstanding about the ideas tenets and practice of islam understanding islam and the people who believe in it has become crucially important in the greater world the islamic world past and present is the ideal source for fostering understanding and answering questions john esposito's acclaimed four volume the encyclopedia of the modern islamic world 1995 set the standard in references on islam adapted from this award winning set the islamic world past and present brings all the scholarship and information of the original to general readers and college and high school students in addition to the more approachable language and user friendly page layout this reference covers events and changes of the last eight years it also includes entirely new entries to provide coverage of the pre modern world of islam containing more than 300 articles it provides an excellent comprehensive resource for gaining understanding into a belief system that seems mysterious and incomprehensible to many the warning of the twentieth century has been characterized by the irrepressible effervescence of islam the end of empire released powerful forces partially suppressed by colonialism the effort of this explosion has been global and profound benign and sinister it has produced reactions and radiation of values held dear by all civilizations during the past decade two new idioms affecting the perception of islam in the west have commanded attention the first caricaturing islam as the green menace replacing the soviet red menace is significantly negative the second is a slowly emerging recognition in ecclesiastical validity and demographic circles of the theological validity and demographic hence political weight of islam this latter idiom is somewhat more positive in its effect these two themes co-exist in a dialectical relationship the dominance of one over the other cannot be clearly foretold if militant radical trends among a minority muslim group increases and expand spatially then the emerging global respectability of islam will be in eclipse if these radical militant actions of muslim identity linked with spiritual growth and political influence could very well be the result pages 3 4 the islamic world is an outstanding guide to islamic faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity written by a distinguished international team of scholars it elucidates the history philosophy and practice of one of the world's great religious traditions its grounding in contemporary scholarship makes it an ideal reference source for students and scholars alike edited by andrew rippin a leading scholar of islam the volume covers the political geographical religious intellectual cultural and social worlds of islam and offers insight into all aspects of muslim life including the quran and law philosophy science and technology art literature and film and much else it explores the concept of an islamic world what makes it distinctive and how uniform is that distinctiveness across muslim geographical regions and through history in this book the german scholar reinhard schulze charts the history of islamic dominant societies in the 20th century looking both at what they have in common and their equally profound differences a panoramic history of the muslim world from the age of the prophet muhammad to the birth of the modern era this book describes and explains the major events personalities conflicts and convergences that have shaped the history of the muslim world the body of the book takes readers from the origins of islam to the eve of the nineteenth century and an epilogue continues the story to the present day michael cook thus provides a broad history of a civilization remarkable for both its unity and diversity after setting the scene in the middle east of late antiquity the book depicts the rise of islam as one of the great black swan events of history it continues with the spectacular rise of the caliphate an empire that by the time it broke up had nurtured the formation of a new civilization it then goes on to cover the diverse histories of all the major regions of the muslim world providing a wide ranging account of the key military political and cultural developments that accompanied the eastward and westward spread of islam from the middle east to the shores of the atlantic and the pacific at the same time a history of the muslim world contains numerous primary source quotations that expose the reader to a variety of acutely insightful voices from the muslim past islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world's population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the west of what islam really is francis robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of muslim culture as well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone's minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the middle east bosnia and the gulf throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between islam and the west from the first latin translations of the quran to the fatwa on salman rushdie this elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the western impression of islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art francis robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works atlas of the islamic world since 1500 cambridge 1982 and the cambridge encyclopedia of india 1989 beginning in the twelfth century the migration of various turkic peoples over a four century period greatly influenced the political and cultural organization of the islamic world this title assesses various factors including the mongol incursions and the crusades during the period of expansion and renewal leading up to ottoman rule also covered are the impacts of colonialism decolonization and globalization on islamic societies this in depth academic guide's exploration of the history of islam through the present gives readers the tools they need to understand the politics and culture of and the problems faced by the islamic world today

in the view of dr martin sicker it was with the emergence of islam that the combination of geopolitics and religion reached its most volatile form and provided the ideological context for war and peace in the middle east for more than a millennium the conflation of geopolitics and religion in islam is predicated on the concept of jihad struggle which may be understood as a crescentade in the same sense as the later christian crusade which seeks to achieve a religious goal the conversion of the world to islam by militant means this equates to a concept of perpetual war with the non muslim world a concept that underlays muslim geopolitical thinking throughout the thousand year period covered in this book however as sicker amply demonstrates the concept often bore little relation to the political realities of the region that as often as not saw muslims and non muslims aligned against and at war with other muslims the story of the emergence and phenomenal ascendancy of the islamic world from a relatively small tribe in sparsely populated arabia is one that taxes the imagination but it becomes more comprehensible when viewed through a geopolitical prism religion was repeatedly and often shamelessly harnessed to geopolitical purpose by both muslims and christians albeit with arguably greater muslim success islamic ascendancy began as an arab project initially focused on the arabian peninsula but was soon transformed into an imperialist movement with expansive ambitions as it grew it quickly registered highly impressive gains but soon lost much of its arab content it ended a millennium later as a turkish more specifically an ottoman project with many intermediate transformations the reverberations of the thousand year history of that ascendancy are still felt today in many parts of the greater middle east a comprehensive geopolitical survey for scholars students researchers and all others interested in the history of the middle east and islam the islamic world and the west perhaps no other topic is currently so often present in the headlines of the international media this timely volume which brings together contributions by 14 established muslim and western scholars intends to present a somewhat more positive outlook in the currently rather strained relations between the islamic world and europe by drawing on shared values and possibilities of cooperation in various fields such as reflected in worldview education economics multiculturalism religious dialogue politics as well as security issues and it shall also contain a historical revaluation of some of those contacts it is the first project within the framework of the recently signed memorandum of understanding between switzerland s university of fribourg and the asia europe institute aei in kuala lumpur s university of malaya malaysia s oldest university dr christoph marcinkowski is an award winning scholar working interdisciplinary in islamic and middle eastern as well as southeast asian and security studies he is currently principal research fellow and chairman of the publications committee at the international institute of advanced islamic studies iias a malaysian think tank and concurrently adjunct professor at aei the three books comprising the muslim world series provide a rich and balanced view of all aspects of islamic religion and its varied manifestations through time and around the world with emphasis on understanding modern muslim society today illustrated dictionary of the muslim world contains hundreds of short entries on islamic concepts religious practices historical events and personalities geographical places and fact files of nations with large muslim populations islamic beliefs practices and cultures begins with 14 chapters introducing the ideas promoted by the religion s founder in the seventh century and tracking their development into new doctrines schools of thought and philosophical literary and cultural traditions as diverse as recitation of scripture in madrassas in egypt to gift giving at holiday time in the united states among the numerous special features are those examining the meanings of jihad the persistence of mystical islam and stand up comedy addressing the cultural divides surrounding muslims today modern muslim societies with a total of twenty three chapters devotes nine to subjects such as family life marriage law human rights and muslim extremism before turning to fourteen regional surveys on manifestations of islam around the world including the united states and canada iran southeast asia africa and everywhere else islam has flourished from the women around muhammad to pop stars of today from medieval caliphates to breakthroughs in science and medicine from love poetry to suicide no aspect of a rich and diverse story goes unnoticed in the three books of muslim world religion philosophy politics economy society law history visual arts architecture literature all sides of islamic thought and muslim ways of life receive attention in this uniquely organized presentation for students and interested general readers publisher a history of the muslim world since 1260 continues the narrative begun by a history of the muslim world to 1750 by tracing the development of muslim societies institutions and doctrines from the time of the mongol conquests through to the present day it offers students a balanced coverage of muslim societies that extend from western europe to southeast asia whereas it presents a multifaceted examination of muslim cultures it focuses on analysing the interaction between the expression of faith and contemporary social conditions this extensively updated second edition is now in full colour and the chronology of the book has been extended to include recent developments in the muslim world the images and maps have also been refreshed and the literature has been updated to include the latest research from the last 10 years including sections dedicated to the roles and status of women within muslim societies throughout history divided chronologically into three parts and accompanied by a detailed glossary a history of the muslim world since 1260 is a perfect introduction for all students of the history of muslim societies this series of volumes on the manifold facets of islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the islamic world its expansion since the revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity the last 100 years of islamic history are examined in the final volume although the approach is thematic rather than historical the period considered has seen european colonialism in most of the islamic world and islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements we survey the groupings and forms of co operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the islamic peoples social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of palestine moves towards educational reform and the status of women in islam as the islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation this volume examines the attitude of contemporary islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both muslim and non muslim countries in addition to the important breaking points of the last century such as the abolition of the caliphate the world wars the cold war the collapse of the soviet union the iranian revolution and the foundation of a new world order which directly affected muslim societies the new conjuncture formed in the wake of the 9 11 attacks brought about various structural problems and changes in the muslim world political and economic developments in the last ten years in particular have brought many muslim countries to the edge of crisis along with political economic and social issues the fact that modernisation and secularisation have become dominant in muslim societies shows that the outcomes of these changes are of great importance in this respect this book offers a significant contribution to debates on the processes of change and transformation in the muslim world in addition to theoretical debates the main dynamics of political and social change in muslim societies are discussed here using specific examples from each country as such this volume will provide the reader with a practical understanding of the historical turning points in the muslim world over recent years this encyclopedia looks at islam s role in the modern world doing so in the context of the religion s history and development over the last 13 centuries containing thematic articles biographies of key figures definitions illustrations maps and more this new encyclopedia fills a need in this key area of religious studies this book examines the history of the muslim world and its peoples islam founded in the arabian peninsula in the early seventh century has become one of the world s main religions a major force in the arab world and beyond
