ancient teutonic religious ceremonies as practiced by the vikings for modern day practitioners of wotanism asatru and odinism an original and deeply researched work on a key period of javanese history by a world expert this book provides a richer understanding of democratic local politics in indonesia after the implementation of local direct elections in 2005 co published with the university of airlangga press it confronts the question as to why incumbent political leaders succeed and fail in their bid for re election by focusing on urban and rural districts in east java one of the most populated regions in indonesia the work unpacks the general trends of local indonesian politics drawing from an empirically sound and theoretically well grounded case study the author demonstrates that good policy performance does not guarantee the political survival of the incumbent and reversibly bad policy performance does not necessarily mean losing political power it considers the core political strategies of populism rivalry and tangibility and cautions that rather than helping liberal democracy to grow these strategies support patronage driven democracy within this system a small number of vital protectors and defenders control patronage and problematically exert influential control over the country s electoral processes relevant to scholars and students in indonesian studies and within political science and asian studies more broadly this book follows a gripping and nuanced narrative that explains the relationship between policy choices informal politics voting behavior and political survival in indonesia this book is a remarkable study of a contemporary javanese millenarian community based on a careful and nuanced exposition of the ideas of this community and its leader embah wali who looked to the coming of the just king ratu adil in the person of the sultan of yogya in the blitar region east java where the community is centred embah wali and his followers created a world in which wayang functioned as the basis for an interpretation of living and being in the world adept in linguistic manipulation of the javanese language embah wali and his disciples created a world of meaning that was unique to their community the author tells the story of embah wali and his followers describes the phases of their movement and relates these developments to the turbulent social and political events that have occurred in java over more than a half century from the 1930s through the 1980s this first hand study of a javanese messianistic movement contributes to our understanding of javanese rural culture and politics as a javanese from blitar raharjo suwandi was fortunately positioned to be able to study and interpret this movement in the midst of its most lively period and then to follow its development to the death of its founder
