lateres signati graeci è un'opera editoriale di carattere archeologico topografico ed epigrafico nata e proseguita nell'ambito delle recenti linee di ricerca della scuola archeologica italiana di atene. È stata concepita con l'obiettivo di colmare una lacuna negli studi di epigrafia archeologia e architettura della grecia antica attraverso la redazione di un corpus di tutte le iscrizioni in greco e in latino impresse graffite o dipinte su materiale da costruzione in laterizio proveniente dagli scavi archeologici antichi e recenti della grecia peninsulare e insulare d'oriente e d'occidente. L'architettura generale dell'opera prevede sillogi ragionate di iscrizioni organizzate in volumi monografici dedicati a singole regioni o a uno o più centri urbani particolarmente significativi le attestazioni qui complessivamente riportate sono pubblicate brevemente e in maniera sparsa in report e pubblicazioni di scavo o in brevi raccolte di singoli contesti quando possibile grazie ai permessi di studio e pubblicazione concessi dalle eforie territoriali competenti e dai musei archeologici di grecia sono stati presi in considerazione anche laterizi iscritti inediti e qui presentati per la prima volta. L'arco cronologico delle iscrizioni trattate è compreso tra il vi sec a c e il iii sec d c sono escluse volutamente le iscrizioni sui laterizi di età proto e medio bizantina. Scopo principale dei lateres signati graeci è quello di raccordare due ambiti disciplinari diversi ma complementari come quello epigrafico e archeologico così da realizzare un sistema di lettura integrato del dato materiale che tenga conto sia dei dati di scavo e dei contesti di rinvenimento sia dei dati storici letterari epigrafici e prosopografici ricavabili dallo studio del bollo. Obiettivo finale è dunque quello di fornire una serie di volumi di consultazione che raccolgano sistematicamente le attestazioni epigrafiche e prosopografiche dei diversi centri e che siano di supporto alla ricerca storica consentendo al tempo stesso di rileggere aspetti fondamentali della storia economica e dell'evoluzione urbanistica di un contesto significativo del mediterraneo orientale tra la fine del vi sec a c e il iii sec d c
