personal letters and diaries provide an intimate view into the hearts and minds of a brother and sister who became martyrs in the anti nazi resistance during world war ii idealistic serious and sensible hans and sophie scholl joined the hitler youth with youthful and romantic enthusiasm but as hitler s grip throttled germany and nazi atrocities mounted hans and sophie emerged from their adolescence with the conviction that at all costs they must raise their voices against the murderous nazi regime in may of 1942 with germany still winning the war an improbable little band of students at munich university began distributing the leaflets of the white rose in the very city where the nazis got their start they demanded resistance to germany s war efforts and confronted their readers with what they had learned of hitler s final solution here we see the most terrible crime committed against the dignity of humankind a crime that has no counterpart in human history these broadsides were secretly drafted and printed in a munich basement by hans scholl by now a young medical student and military conscript and a handful of young co conspirators that included his twenty one year old sister sophie the leaflets placed the scholls and their friends in mortal danger and it wasn t long before they were captured and executed as their letters and diaries reveal the scholls were not primarily motivated by political beliefs but rather came to their convictions through personal spiritual search that eventually led them to sacrifice their lives for what they believed was right interwoven with commentary on the progress of hitler s campaign the letters and diary entries range from veiled messages about the course of a war they wanted their country to lose to descriptions of
