traditional religious history preserves a rarely acknowledged secret that christianity developed from at least three ancient roots a western structural root derived from mediterranean greek culture an eastern spiritual root from anatolia and persia and a literary jewish historical root which masked the other roots and supported the idea that christians had taken the place of jews in relationship with god by entering a new covenant with jesus each root contributed something special to the development of christianity as follows supported by pagan iconography and rhetoric the western root imprinted christianity with greek spirit in a hellenistic universe the eastern root filled the greek construct with magic focused humanity on a divine mission and infused popular reverence for goddesses into christian beliefs about the virgin mary the literary jewish root played two contradictory roles jewish scripture served as the reliable witness that proved jesus to be both god and savior and double edged moral lessons in the old testament explained catastrophic events in the first century a d as divine judgment against jews supporting beliefs by early pagan converts to christianity that romans were good jews were bad and god abandoned jews for treacherously murdering jesus two thousand years ago mediterranean cults included practices and beliefs that modern christians associate exclusively with christianity people worshipped divine mothers who gave birth to dying and resurrecting gods on december 25 saviors miraculously healed faithful followers and guided them to lead moral lives some cults baptized their followers some passed their sins and inner demons to pigs and some waited for a complete destruction of evil during the imminent end of days then as now people argued whether the end would come by fire or water and whether many or few souls would be saved numerous symbols and beliefs associated in modern times with christianity already existed in pre christian hellenistic cults madonna and child images angels god the father the cross as a symbol of life after death and the gift of eternal life through the shedding of immortal blood on temple walls wise men offered gifts of incense and gold to newborn gods and merciful mothers granted salvation to the poor in spirit who confessed repented and begged forgiveness for their sins however jews generally rejected all these practices symbols and beliefs some jews believed in physical resurrection and some did not some believed in eternal life and some did not for most jews however a righteous life required the following of god s laws if a jew sinned against another man no automatic forgiveness from god was possible forgiveness required acknowledgement of wrongdoing restitution and then forgiveness from the wronged party applying jewish ethics to problems at the jerusalem temple meant recognizing the corruption within the priesthood refusing to tolerate the evil rule of rome and giving one s life if necessary to precipitate the kingdom of god just as god always had responded to the prayers of suffering jews in the bible he would do so again soon he would send a messiah to deliver jerusalem from the evil power of rome and to cleanse judea from the polluting practices of pagan cults drawing from both visible and secret roots christians freed themselves from paying for salvation from mystery cults while preserving the ability to worship a virgin born hero with all the trappings of a pagan solar deity this book explores the roots of christianity in seven parts the first three parts provide an overview of religious beliefs practices and iconography in the ancient greek world that influenced western culture and religion the fourth fifth and sixth parts describe how the west developed under roman influence then the seventh part focuses on the life of jesus and the emergence of christian cults in the first century a d
