Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- 1 Where can I find reliable primary sources on the Aztecs? While challenging to access in their original languages, translated excerpts from codices like the Codex Mendoza and Spanish chronicles like those of Bernal Daz del Castillo are available online and in academic libraries. Always approach them critically, considering the authors' perspective.
- 2 How do I cite my sources in my MiniQ response? Your teacher will likely specify a citation style (MLA, Chicago, etc.). Familiarize yourself with the chosen styles' guidelines for citing books, articles, and websites. Consistent and accurate citation is crucial.
- 3 What if I disagree with the interpretations presented in my sources? This is excellent! Academic debate thrives on differing interpretations. Acknowledge differing perspectives, present your own well-supported argument, and explain why you disagree.
- 4 How long should my MiniQ response be? The length will depend on your teacher's instructions. Focus on quality over quantity. A well-structured, concise, and thoroughly researched response is more valuable than a lengthy, rambling one.
- 5 What if I'm still struggling? Don't hesitate to seek help from your teacher, librarian, or a tutor. They can provide guidance, feedback, and additional resources to help you succeed. Remember, asking for help is a sign of strength, not weakness.
