this book brings together an impressive group of scholars to critically engage with a wide ranging and broad perspective on the historical and contemporary phenomenon of zen the structure of the work is organized to reflect the root and branches of zen with the root referring to important episodes in chan zen history within the asian context and the branches referring to more recent development in the west in collating what has transpired in the last several decades of chan zen scholarship the collection recognizes and honors the scholarly accomplishments and influences of steven heine arguably the most important zen scholar in the past three decades as it looks back at the intellectual horizons that this towering figure in zen chan studies has pioneered and developed it seeks to build on the grounds that were broken and subsequently established by heine thereby engendering new works within this enormously important religio cultural scholarly tradition this curated festschrift is a tribute both retrospective and prospective acknowledging the foundational work that heine has forged and generates research that is both complementary and highly original this academic ritual of assembling a liber amicorum is based on the presumption that sterling scholarship should be honored by conscientious scholarship in the festive spirit of a festschrift this anthology consists of the resounding voices of heine and his colleagues it is an indispensable collection for students and scholars interested in japanese religion and chinese culture and for those researching zen buddhist history and philosophy many critics have interpreted bob dylan s lyrics especially those composed during the middle to late 1960s in the contexts of their relation to american folk blues and rock n roll precedents their discographical details and concert performances their social political and cultural relevance and or their status for discussion as poems dylan s autobiography of a vocation instead focuses on how all of dylan s 1965 1967 songs manifest traces of his ongoing internal autobiography in which he continually declares and questions his relation to a self determined existential summons why me god why not me i noticed a swelling on my lower left leg on the calf muscle in late december 2009 there was no pain at all so i dismissed it as a swelling from a hard fall i had taken in my basement about a month earlier i showed it to cindy who wanted me to go to the doctor s but if you haven t noticed i am thick headed and wanted to see if it would just go away it didn t the doctor s visit and subsequent mri in february began the process of identifying just what this thing was treatment could only begin after a positive id at this point i was not overly concerned i still believed it to be a hematoma from the fall it turned out to be much much more this is the first entry into a 2 year caringbridge journal for my husband bob who was 63 at the time and a very virile and active man the hematoma turned out to be a rare and aggressive cancer that would take his life just 2 years later the journal documents the tremendous faith and strength that he received from christ every step of the way the journal will carry you through the innermost thoughts of a man who knows that there is a possibility that he will not live through this but turns to god and sees the joy of life in adversity i rode the journey with him for 2 years and realized that through jesus bob was able to not only live well but also to die well his journal will put you front and center on his beautiful journey something he called an e ticket ride with christ we were all blessed to be a part of his journey and i hope that after reading this you will feel blessed too he took my fear and turned it into wonder the mysteries of the ages will be mine soon are you jealous open our eyes to the reality of the moments we live in
