this book brings together an impressive group of scholars to critically engage with a wide ranging and broad perspective on the historical and contemporary phenomenon of zen the structure of the work is organized to reflect the root and branches of zen with the root referring to important episodes in chan zen history within the asian context and the branches referring to more recent development in the west in collating what has transpired in the last several decades of chan zen scholarship the collection recognizes and honors the scholarly accomplishments and influences of steven heine arguably the most important zen scholar in the past three decades as it looks back at the intellectual horizons that this towering figure in zen chan studies has pioneered and developed it seeks to build on the grounds that were broken and subsequently established by heine thereby engendering new works within this enormously important religio cultural scholarly tradition this curated festschrift is a tribute both retrospective and prospective acknowledging the foundational work that heine has forged and generates research that is both complementary and highly original this academic ritual of assembling a liber amicorum is based on the presumption that sterling scholarship should be honored by conscientious scholarship in the festive spirit of a festschrift this anthology consists of the resounding voices of heine and his colleagues it is an indispensable collection for students and scholars interested in japanese religion and chinese culture and for those researching zen buddhist history and philosophy

i am amazed at the unexpected dynamic that took hold once i decided that i would deploy a methodology that would allow events to be seen in the perspective of the scriptures first listeners i wanted to get another perspective but never dreamed i would see things that i would never have seen had i been locked in to my limited perspective one that i had learned while growing up in a christian home one that i had continued to develop in eight straight years of seminary culminating in three advanced degrees i will be forever thankful that the lord led me to experiment with a new method for studying scripture i am truly blessed i hope that you will be too cover photo credit don claybrook jr painting by don claybrook sr it seems that government wants to invade every part of our lives our workplace our religion even our families and now our debt as a small businessman i am appalled at the spending deficit year after year don t our people in congress know that even the interest on our national debt is a backbreaking load on our economy perhaps we have too many lawyers roaming the hallowed halls and too few responsible businessmen the awful specter of death overwhelmed me never again would i hear her bubbly laughter as she jumped into my lap to hug me never again would she delight us with her little girl antics i begged god to spare her i confessed every sin i could remember it was not to be in his infinite wisdom god took her home oh susan i consider the bible to be the most practical book ever written it teaches us how to live in a world that seems to consider honesty and integrity to be a fault it teaches purity in a world where chastity is pictured as unnatural it promotes self sacrificial friendliness to a grasping self seeking world it teaches us to live peaceably and finally it can prepare us for eternity
