and Recreational Venues Historically, alcohol has played a pivotal role in social clubs worldwide, functioning as a facilitator of conversation, relaxation, and community bonding. In many countries, snooker and billiards establishments often included bars or serve alcohol as part of their service offerings, recognizing the social function that alcohol consumption can serve in enhancing the leisure experience. In the early 20th century, British snooker halls frequently doubled as pubs or had dedicated bar areas, where patrons could enjoy a drink while engaging in gameplay. This cultural pattern persists today in many regions, where alcohol, notably beer, is intertwined with the social fabric of recreational clubs.

The Case of Waguih Ghali: A Cultural and Geographical Perspective

Waguih Ghali, an Egyptian novelist celebrated for his incisive depiction of Cairo's social landscapes, lent his name to this particular snooker club, which suggests a cultural and perhaps regional influence on its offerings and atmosphere. The club, situated in an urban setting with a diverse clientele, reflects a blend of traditional leisure practices and modern trends. Understanding the local cultural attitudes toward alcohol consumption is critical. In Egypt, for example, alcohol laws are complex and often influenced by religious and cultural norms.
