a supplement to any of the elementary methods available for saxophone it contains studies for rhythmic development designed to aid the student in developing sight reading ability included also are daily technical exercises which consist of indispensable scale arpeggio and interval work which should be included in the daily routine the second book of practical studies is designed to logically extend the techniques already presented in the first book and also to introduce and develop new techniques and rhythms that will offer a challenge to the intermediate student through the use of slightly more difficult and more extended studies it is hoped that the material included in this book may more fully develop general musicianship and more feeling for style and interpretation and thus act as a foundation for solo literature
