While contemporary American culture may be fixated on youthful sex appeal the truth is that the most complex and interesting characters in dramatic literature have been and still are those over 40 years old whether it's Big Daddy in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof or Halie in Buried Child or Eve in The Good Body the richest characters are those over 40 whose wealth of experience often helps little when it comes to making the difficult decisions this volume will mine the deep and fertile vein of world drama with an emphasis on lesser known contemporary work as it relates to monologues for mature actors the result is certain to be a surprising and enriching one for both the dedicated professional and the inquisitive amateur

a collection of four plays by new american writers curated from the emerging writers group at the public theater new york these plays represent the finest works developed by the public theater addressing contemporary social preoccupations race class heritage economic hardship family values and identity the plays included are perish by stella fawn ragsdale when porter s father kidnaps her son she must go back to the woods of east tennessee to find him where she is distracted by a mysterious firebird textured with poetry and grit this play follows the plight of women in appalachia and the disappearance of the working class the hour of feeling by mona mansour in 1967 fuelled by a love of english romantic poetry a young palestinian academic adham and his new wife abir take a trip to london where he will deliver a career defining lecture while the situation in his home country deteriorates and his marriage threatens to dissolve adham confronts his fear of failure and the reality that he may be an outsider no matter where he goes bethany by laura marks when the going gets tough the tough get going and the going has gotten very tough indeed for crystal her job is in jeopardy her house has been repossessed and her daughter taken by social services it s time for crystal to get going but in her effort to get her daughter back and put her life on the right track crystal is forced to question just how far she s willing to go to survive neighbors by branden jacobson jenkins black face not on my doorstep not today richard patterson is not happy the family of black actors that has moved in next door is rowdy tacky shameless and uncouth and they are not just invading his neighborhood they re infiltrating his family his sanity and his entirely post racial lifestyle this wildly theatrical explosive play on race is an unconventional comedy which uses minstrelsy both to explore the history of black theater and to confront tensions in post racial america
