my goal upon entering moody's mabs program was then as it is now to know God better and to love Him more. Before completing the program, I began praying to know what God had in mind for me next. While praying, I realized that some, if not much, of the biblical knowledge I had recently gained would likely slip from my mind if I did not take steps to prevent that. I was then led to compile my written assignments into a well-organized anthology. As I prayerfully worked on that project, I realized that the finished product could well serve as a Christian discipleship or small group study that led me to prayerfully consider making the project available to everyone. Now, along with Westbow Press, I am blessed to invite you to embark on a journey through your own at-home seminary.

Written in a comprehensive style, this work is a detailed expositional commentary of Jonah, the grace of God, and the salvation of Nineveh, and Nahum, the vivid destruction and judgment of Nineveh. In a verse-by-verse explanation of each prophetic book according to the New American Standard Bible (NASB), in Jonah, the Ninevites of Assyria repented of their cruel and annihilatory exploits and were spared from destruction. However, less than a century later, the Assyrians apparently repented of their repentance and demolished the ten northern tribes of Israel in 722 BC. Although nineteen evil kings reigned over Israel since its inception in 931 BC, as a result of the divided kingdom, the entire nation of Israel was still God's sovereign elect in keeping with His promises concerning the Abrahamic Covenant. God will not tolerate the mistreatment and the oppression of His people; hence, Nahum's message signifies the complete and absolute obliteration of the Assyrian empire and its capital city, Nineveh.
