in this book Leah E. Robinson discusses the COVID-19 pandemic as it was viewed in the theological community both professionally and politically. Robinson explores the ways in which the misuse of various Christian theological doctrines have led to and perpetuated social ills. She begins by first defining her criteria for bad versus good theology and then investigates the ways in which the handling of the COVID pandemic has provided damaging examples of bad theology. The book gives a voice to those who are trying to guide people towards scientific logic and good health while simultaneously using the lens of Christian leadership.

Have you ever wondered how many things are coming upon us in this new year 2020 or perhaps you have wanted to know which special events will take place this year and what kind of natural disasters will occur and continue to occur? There is so much speculation out there right so many conjectures and ideas of what may happen and take place in this 2020, this incredible year of 2020 will usher in the beginning of the end. It seems that beginning this year we are going to see and experience more natural disasters, famine, epidemics, and viruses, and world war. God called me to be a watchman and to sound the alarm. It is He who has declared the end from the beginning. Isaiah 46:10 and so it is the sole purpose and intent of this book to show you and to reveal and disclose to you the prophetic events that will take place soon.

Narratives based on conspiratorial and paranoid thinking have become increasingly prominent throughout the 20th and 21st centuries. From the prosaic to the outlandish, conspiracy theories involve aliens and Nazis, underground bases, and mind control technology. They range from sinister tales of malevolent reptilian beings infiltrating our government to fears of the New World Order rounding up patriotic Americans and putting them into internment camps. These stories and their underlying concerns have a long history in the U.S. and have often been bolstered by revelations of real conspiracies and cover-ups by private and public entities. This book examines conspiracy theories and the narratives constructed by those who believe and propagate them, providing a unique view of U.S. history and highlighting fears both founded and unfounded.

examines dispensationalism, the evangelical relationship with Israel, and how it affects American politics regarding the Middle East.
