Don't be afraid to ask. Interview family members and friends, look through old photos, and browse social media for clues. Even small details can contribute to the richness of the story. 4 How can I ensure that the story remains sensitive and respectful? Always prioritize the birthday person's comfort and preferences. Avoid sharing sensitive information without their consent and tailor the narrative to reflect their personality and sensitivities. 5 What if the birthday is for a child too young to understand a complex narrative?
