this second volume of robert a hill s monumental ten volume survey of marcus mosiah garvey s extraordinary mass movement of black social protest covers a period of rapid growth the universal negro improvement association with its africa for the africans program of racial nationalism rapidly gained in strength in the aftermath of garvey s successful meeting in carnegie hall in august 1919 and culminated in its spectacular first international convention of the negro peoples of the world in 1920 hill has compiled a wealth of archival documents and original manuscripts with descriptive source notes and explanatory footnotes he provides a fascinating account of the spread of garvey s movement which was seen and feared by officials in america europe and colonial governments in africa and the caribbean as the major ideological force promoting radical consciousness among blacks hill continues the comprehensive outline begun in volume i of garvey s black star line the all black merchant marine and documents the beginnings of garvey s proposals for massive loans to the liberian government these controversial financial schemes led to garvey s reputation as a swindler and volume ii details the first charges of fraud the federal investigation of garvey broadened and deepened during 1919 1920 with j edgar hoover then an assistant to the attorney general continuing to search for grounds to deport garvey included here are numerous responses from government agents and informers which provide a valuable portrait of day to day unia operations volume ii ends with the unia s 1920 convention presented by garvey as a turning point in the history of black white relations the legislation and the elective offices produced by that convention were intended to form a virtual government in exile for africa fulfilling garvey s ambition to practice statecraft and create the symbols of black nationhood and sovereignty this volume is the second of six that focus on america the seventh and eighth focus on africa and the last two on the caribbean hill has brought together far more than a portrait of a single intriguing historical figure garvey s movement was a mass social phenomenon an afro american protest movement with strong links to african and caribbean nationalism in the first decades of the twentieth century this second volume of robert a hill s monumental ten volume survey of marcus mosiah garvey s extraordinary mass movement of black social protest covers a period of rapid growth the universal negro improvement association with its africa for the africa the fourth volume of the marcus garvey and universal negro improvement association papers marks the period of deepening crisis in the unia s political and economic fortunes after september of 1921 membership declined and morale in the unia began to weaken underlying it all however was the final failure of the black star line that resulted when negotiations with the united states chipping board for the purchase of the long proposed african ship collapsed in march 1922 the movement also suffered a major setback when the first liberian colonization plan aborted in the summer of 1921 on the political front garvey s african program had to compete with w e b du bois s second pan african congress the were also major shifts in garvey s political strategy during this period his speeches reflecting a desire to placate the u s government while simultaneously assailing his lef wing critics for promoting social equality this disavowal of radicalism earned him further enemies on the left one of his chief black critics cyril v briggs the leader of the african blood brotherhood unwittingly supplied federal investigators with evidence that led to garvey s indictment on charges of mail fraud in february 1922 by prosecuting him however the department of justice did not discredit garvey in the eyes of his followers rather it temporarily strengthened his hold over the movement as the appearance of persecution intensified the loyalty of the unia membership but later in 1922 garvey did lose favor among many of his followers when it was disclosed that he had met secretly in atlanta with the acting imperial wizard of the ku klux klan what garvey had thought was a diplomatic triumph proved instead to be anathema to most blacks at the third unia convention in 1922 garvey repudiated the entire executive council of the unia while expressing his anger of plots against him from within the unia leadership loyalty to garvey thus became a more urgent issue than ever before but although garvey was once again able to silence his critics within the unia the price was to be a badly fractured and demoralized movement at the same time his political adversaries outside the unia were steadily gaining ground against him as meticulously documented as the three previous volumes volume iv provides the first extended record of garvey s emergent social philosophy particularly as it relates to his conception of racial purity and the metaphysics of the human condition it stands as an impressive record of the garvey movement the fourth volume of the marcus garvey and universal negro improvement association papers marks the period of deepening crisis in the unia s political and economic fortunes after september of 1921 membership declined and morale in the unia began to weak this is the third volume of robert a hill's massive ten volume survey of marcus mosiah garvey and the extraordinary mass movement of black social protest he inspired hill brings together a wealth of original documents speeches letters newspaper articles intelligence reports pamphlets and diplomatic dispatches to provide a record of the period between the first and second international conventions of the universal negro improvement association the success of the august 1920 convention as documented in volume ii justified garvey's expanded emphasis on african redemption and established his movement's substantial following in black communities around the world and by the time of the august 1921 convention the unia was the major political force among blacks in the postwar world as volume iii reveals however there arose signs of crisis in the movement garvey's lieutenants began to doubt both the financial health of the black star line and the wisdom of garvey's methods of raising money for his liberian colonization and trade scheme soon the entire black star line enterprise hovered on the brink of bankruptcy and a steep decline in the shipping business made prospects for the black star line even less promising but garvey capitalized on the momentum gathered at the august 1920 convention and spent much of his time in a new round of promotional tours devoted to selling black star line stock shoring up weak unia divisions and chartering new ones this gave j edgar hoover his long awaited opportunity to remove garvey from the afro american political scene when garvey embarked on a promotional tour of the west indies and central america in february 1921 the united states government with some assistance from the british attempted to keep garvey from returning to the country garvey s trip was to mark a turning point in the history of the unia garvey s lieutenants who were charged with running the unia during his absence frequently clashed over unclear lines of authority this also created severe difficulties for the black star line and the unia s liberian project under these circumstances garvey asked for and received from the 1921 convention control over all unia and black star line finances as a means of centralizing all authority in his hands at the same time garvey launched an attack at the convention against those black leaders including w e b du bois whom he perceived as opponents of the unia he further initiated a controversial campaign to label these political opponents as advocates of social equality between the races while offering as an alternative his philosophy of racial purity this volume is the third of six that focus on america the seventh and eighth focus on africa and the last two on the caribbean in volume iii robert hill documents the complexities and turmoil of the garvey movement from 1920 to 1921 as an unfolding drama emerges that pits american and european political diplomatic and economic interests against the first comprehensive expression of the modern black struggle for freedom this is the third volume of robert a hill s massive ten volume survey of marcus mosiah garvey and the extraordinary mass movement of black social protest he inspired hill brings together a wealth of original documents speeches letters newspaper articl
