this new collection of stories from the multi award winning author of doomsday book and to say nothing of the dog contains a letter from the clearys at the rialto death on the nile the soul selects her own society fire watch inside job even the queen the winds of marble arch all seated on the ground last of the winnebagos ten stories which have all won the hugo award the nebula award or both are compulsory reading for the serious science fiction fan in spite of connie willis s numerous science fiction awards and her groundbreaking history as a woman in the field there is a surprising dearth of critical publication surrounding her work taking doomsday book as its cue this collection argues that connie willis s most famous novel along with the rest of her oeuvre performs science fiction s task of cognitive estrangement by highlighting our human inability to read the times correctly and yet also affirming the ethical imperative to attempt to truly observe and record our temporal location willis s fiction emphasizes that doomsdays happen every day and they risk being forgotten by some even as their trauma repeats for others however disasters also have the potential to upend accepted knowledge and transform the social order for the better and this collection considers the ways that willis pairs comic and tragic modes to reflect these uncertainties few authors have had careers as successful as that of connie willis inducted into the science fiction hall of fame and recently awarded the title of grand master by the science fiction and fantasy writers of america willis is still going strong her smart heartfelt fiction runs the gamut from screwball comedy to profound tragedy combining dazzling plot twists cutting edge science and unforgettable characters from a near future mourning the extinction of dogs to an alternate history in which invading aliens were defeated by none other than emily dickinson from a madcap convention of bumbling quantum physicists in hollywood to a london whose underground has become a storehouse of intangible memories both foul and fair here are the greatest stories of one of the greatest writers working in any genre today all ten of the stories gathered here are hugo or nebula award winners some even have the distinction of winning both with a new introduction by the author and personal afterwords to each story plus a special look at three of willis s unique public speeches this is unquestionably the collection of the season a book that every connie willis fan will treasure and to those unfamiliar with her work the perfect introduction to one of the most accomplished and best loved writers of our time praise for the best of connie willis filled with warmth and sadness great drama witty dialogue characters you will care about and moments that you will remember for a long time sff world if anyone can be named best science fiction writer of the age it s connie willis and these stories are the best of her best truly analog ranging from the hilarious to the profound these stories show the full range of connie willis s talent for taut dazzling plots real science memorable characters penetrating dialogue and blistering drama kirkus reviews thank goodness for connie willis who says many things that desperately need saying in more than one delightful way milwaukee journal sentinel the best of connie willis isn't that like sorting through diamonds lytherus ned henry is a time travelling historian who specialises in the mid 20th century currently engaged in researching the bombed out coventry cathedral he's also made so many drops into the past that he's suffering from a dangerously advanced case of time lag unfortunately for ned an emergency dash to victorian england is required and he's the only available historian but ned's time lag is so bad that he's not sure what the errand is which is bad news since if he fails history could unravel around him winner of six nebula and two hugo awards for her fiction connie willis is acclaimed for her gifted imagination and bold invention here are eleven of her finest stories surprising tales in which the impossible becomes real the real becomes impossible and strangeness lurks at every turn the end of the world comes not with a bang but a series of whimpers over many years in the last of the winnebagos the terror of pain and dying gives birth to a startling truth about the nature of the stars a principle known as the schwarzschild radius in spice pogrom an outrageous colony in outer space becomes the setting for a screwball comedy of bizarre complications mistaken identities far too friendly aliens and even true love for jeff johnston a young historical researcher for a civil war novelist reality is redefined on a bitter cold night near the close of a lingering winter he meets annie an intense and lovely young woman suffering from vivid intense nightmares haunted by the dreamer and her unrelenting dreams jeff leads annie on an emotional odyssey through the heartland of the civil war in search of a cure on long silenced battlefields their relationship blossoms two obsessed lovers linked by unbreakable chains of history torn by a duty that could destroy them both suspenseful moving and highly compelling lincoln's dreams is a novel of rare imaginative power that strikes a chord deep within the hearts of us all connie willis draws upon her understanding of the universalities of human nature to explore the ageless issues of evil suffering and the indomitable will of the human spirit a tour de force the new york times book review for kivrin preparing to travel back in time to study one of the deadliest eras in humanity's history was as simple as receiving inoculations against the diseases of the fourteenth century and inventing an alibi for a woman traveling alone for her instructors in the twenty first century it meant painstaking calculations and careful monitoring of the rendezvous location where kivrin would be received but a crisis strangely linking past and future strands kivrin in a bygone age as her fellows try desperately to rescue her in a time of superstition and fear kivrin barely of age herself finds she has become an unlikely angel of hope during one of history's darkest hours this book takes the concept of dark tourism journeys to sites of death suffering and calamity in an innovative yet essential direction by applying it to the virtual realms of literature film and television the internet and gaming essays focus both on the creative construction of imaginary journeys and the historiographic and civic consequences of such memorializations from world war ii time travel novels to game of thrones and from internet reproductions of rwandan genocide locations to invented tragedies in futuristic domains authors from various fields examine the purpose and influence of simulated travels to morbid sites designed for a wide audience of scholars and travelers virtual and real this volume raises awareness about the many pathways through which we encounter death experiences in contemporary society what we know about the past or what we think we know about it is shaped daily by such imagined journeys as these
