in recent years the airline industry has experienced severe volatility in earnings with airlines recording periods of substantial profits that are closely followed by periods of financial distress this trend has continued into the new millennium with numerous examples of airlines across the globe entering bankruptcy protection or liquidating the text provides an introduction to both the basics of finance and the particular intricacies of airline finance where there can be significant fluctuations in both revenues and costs this new edition also includes capital budgeting management of current assets financial risk analysis fuel hedging aircraft leasing this textbook contains chapters that cover unique aspects of the aviation financial decision making process these include a rigorous and structured presentation of the buy versus lease decision that is prevalent in the industry a valuation process for aviation assets the recent trend toward privatization and the difficulty inherent in the valuation of a publicly owned or semi publicly owned asset the foundations of airline finance now in its second edition is an introductory text that can be used either as a general financial text or in a specialized class that deals with aviation finance in particular when starting new airlines in response to government deregulation entrepreneurs in the u s and europe reduced some traditional service qualities to reduce costs concentrated on non stop services between city pairs not already so connected improved on time performance and offered low fares to win leisure travelers from the incumbents and to encourage more travel in recent developments some of the new airlines have offered optional extras at higher fares to attract business travelers and entered major routes alongside the legacy carriers within both the u s and europe deregulation removed most geographical barriers to expansion by short haul airlines later limited deregulation spread to other world regions where many short haul routes connect city pairs in different countries and where governments have retained traditional two country mechanisms restricting who may fly to gain access to domestic routes in other countries some new airlines are setting up affiliate companies in neighboring countries with each company legally controlled in the country of domicile with air travel growing strongly especially in asia a common result is intense but potentially short lived competition on major routes the recent developments give clear signposts to likely mid term outcomes and make this an opportune time to report on the new airline scene the airline revolution will provide valuable economic analysis of this climate to students airline professionals advancing to senior positions public servants and others who provide advice to governments in many respects 2014 marked the transition from strong recovery to promising growth for dubai with many exciting projects in the pipeline not least the hosting of expo 2020 the emirate is continuing to build on its reputation as a dynamic and international centre for business already a regional and global centre for business and finance dubai s reputation has been bolstered by the msci s decision to upgrade the uae from frontier to emerging market status in 2014 while the emirate s successful expo 2020 bid is expected to generate myriad opportunities for private investors across a range of sectors construction is thriving once again driven in large part by strong retail sector growth with various projects including plans for the world s largest mall indicating that the sector will maintain its position as the emirate s biggest gdp contributor moving forward the transport and logistics framework is set for major expansion in the coming years as well furthering cementing the emirate s status as a leading transport and logistics hub not just regionally but globally too the continued development of dubai s retail and hospitality offerings alongside the upgrades to its airports should help to ensure robust growth in visitor numbers from both the region and further afield
