today s corporate deal makers face a conundrum though 70 of major acquisitions fail it s nearly impossible to build a world class company without doing deals in mastering the merger david harding and sam rovit argue that a laserlike focus on just four key imperatives before executives finalize the deal can dramatically improve the odds of m a success based on more than 30 years of in the trenches work on thousands of deals across a range of industries and supplemented by extensive bain co research harding and rovit reveal that the best m a performers channel their efforts into 1 targeting deals that advance the core business 2 determining which deals to close and when to walk away 3 identifying where to integrate and where not to and 4 developing contingency plans for when deals inevitably stray top deal makers also favor a succession of smaller deals over complex megamergers and essentially institutionalize a success formula over time helping executives zero in on what matters most in the complex world of m a mastering the merger offers a blueprint for the decisions and strategies that will beat the odds
