the author s decision to leave religion after experiencing a profound growth crisis founded itself in the free action of one who after walking tenaciously has extinguished an existential possibility and reached a new realm of understanding about the realities of the consciousness and the universe the inner freedom encountered to make this kind of decision was the result of a gradual self confrontation this author perceived the necessity to dispel the fear associated with questioning his habitual suppositions and to look beyond the limits of the indoctrination he had received for a long time while still religious he named this fearlessness a quest for wisdom or the spirituality of an unsettled heart nowadays in light of the experiences had he prefers to emphasize the courage to evolve which requires five years after the abjuration the assumption of speaking publicly about the dissidence that was effected when dissidents of ideologies or institutions start talking or writing about their experiences it is necessary to observe the kind of motivation and intention implicit in the decision made the former militant the former integrant the former partisan the former something in spite of the effort to affirm that they are no longer part of the institution to which they once belonged may continue to define themselves based on the institution in this case the person is still a former in relation to what they intend to deny perhaps in their eagerness to critically speak out about the reasons underlying their abandonment of a certain idea or organization they still flaunt the previous condition as a trophy unfurling the pride of being a former the ambiguity in question lies in the fact that the person's point of reference continues to be in the no longer desired way of living or thinking africans prevailing interest in the prosperity gospel is not only connected to the influence of american prosperity teachers reaching a worldwide audience through their imaginative use of the media but is also related to the african worldview and african traditional religion and its lasting influence on contemporary africans and the way they think about prosperity as well as their interest in prosperity in post colonial africa the research from a classical pentecostal perspective about the impact of the prosperity message on africa is necessary timely and relevant because of its influence in the african pentecostal movement and its potential to harm the faith of believers leading to the potential disillusionment of christian believers who put their trust and money in formulas and recipes that seemingly only work for others especially the prosperity leaders who lead by example with incredulous riches and wealth
