praise for fixed income securities second edition what distinguishes this book from many others on the subject isthat tuckman has skillfully combined intuitive rationale withmathematical analysis to give readers a clear and deepunderstanding of the market tuckman has written a comprehensivereference book that should be found on the desks of both seasoned practitioners and novices alike. Gerald Lucas, senior government strategist, director of global securities research at Merrill Lynch. This outstanding book offers a well-written and clear tutorial for many of the cutting-edge analytical techniques and models used in practice. It combines a wealth of institutional knowledge, practical tools, and realistic examples while giving a clear understanding of the underlying theory. Francis Longstaff, professor of finance at the Anderson School at UCLA, an excellent reference for anyone intending to bridge the gap between financial mathematics theory and the practice of financial markets. Marek Musiela, BNP Paribas. This is an extremely readable book with a balance between technical detail and practical application. Unlike other books in the area, thorough and tightly knit chapters reflect Tuckman's unique background as a well-respected academic and market participant. Tony D. Kao, managing director of Global Fixed Income at MIGA Asset Management.
