natalie mylonas uses ezekiel 16 as a case study in order to reveal the critical relationship between space emotion and identity politics in the hebrew bible drawing on interdisciplinary research that emphasises how space and emotions are inextricably linked in human experience mylonas explores the portrayal of yhwh s wife jerusalem in ezekiel 16 as a personified city who feels emotion she foregrounds purity and gender issues as well as debates on emotions in the hebrew bible emphasising that spatiality is a key component of how these issues are conceptualised in ancient israel this book argues that the power struggle between jerusalem and yhwh in ezekiel 16 is a struggle over the contested space of jerusalem s body and the city space jerusalem s emotions are in a dynamic relationship with the spaces in the text they are signified by these spaces shift as the constitution of the spaces shifts and are shaped by jerusalem's use of space her desire pride and shamelessness are communicated spatially through her use of city space while her representation as disgusting is underscored by her uncontrollable female body mylonas concludes by showing how ezekiel's vision of the new jerusalem in ezekiel 40 48 re-establishes sacred space through the erasure of the feminine city metaphor coupled with strict boundary policing which is a far cry from the assault on jerusalem's boundaries described in ezekiel 16
