the theme of love and marriage in literature is perhaps as old as literature itself works of literature across borders and genres have worked around these twin themes to give us some of the most memorable tales yet they appear quite neglected by the critics when making a study of african literature the world of literary criticism has witnessed a newfound interest in the african continent which had for a long time been suffering in ignominious darkness yet the majority of critical study is still focused on postcolonial themes and human relationships have largely been ignored the white man s perception and portrayal of africa as a land of savages devoid of finer emotions could be a major influence in this regard this study strives to prove that the africans have always had a rich history and culture of interpersonal relationships and the twin themes of love and marriage run across their literature justifying their claim to being as capable of harboring finer emotions as any other civilization of the world the novels under study in this research work present the importance of love in various aspects like the man woman relationship parent child relationship and an individual s love for his native land various types of matrimonial alliances with the different aspects of an african marriage such as settling of marriage settlement and payment of the bride price gender equations polygamy widow remarriage etc have all been studied in the backdrop of the three novels taken under consideration this research work based on the novels of elechi amadi buchi emecheta and chinua achebe studies the representation of love and marriage in african literature as an important and recurrent theme that touches upon other aspects of the society like class division human relationships social beliefs myths superstition and most importantly the gender perspectives living in dependence critical perspectives on global interdependence embraces a multidisciplinary approach to the interconnectedness of independence and dependence in every ramification of the words these scholars and academics from different disciplinary area examine independence dependence not simply as polar opposites in their saussurian sense but as a binary embedded in the concept of independence herein scholars have had to challenge their perceived or preconceived notions about independence and dependence from their respective disciplinary discursive perspectives this book is a rare gift to the curious reader thirsty for knowledge and understanding of the underlying heightened and drummed rhetoric on exclusion which rhetoric is aimed at legitimizing nationalist and isolationist positions and with exclusionists clamoring for walls separating people who supposedly live in a global village living in dependence critical perspectives on global interdependence is a timely reminder especially when the world is at cross purposes with generation old alliances falling apart like the berlin wall that less than 30 years ago fell to mark an end to sadness and separation that same engendered from 1949 1989 in short this study explores the binary of life experience of independence and that of dependence as constituent flipsides of a coin whose meaning can only be grasped by taking a closer look at each facet
