with over thirty tales in this collection i agonised over which of them should be the cover story however the bleak solitude of those storm tossed light towers often built off some wild and windswept rocky coast has always fascinated me and so i chose the drama of the sea with wreckers even the most elevated families seem to have a black sheep who does not conform and in twice loved a wayward young son is to be disowned and banished forever in the curse of khartoum a despised mis fit goes off at a tangent with surprising results for everyone concerned things are rarely as black and white or as straightforward as they seem and i hope these little tales will show that nothing in life should be taken for granted or at face value i leave you to decide if you think i am right h r

magic and conjuring inhabit the boundaries and the borderlands of performance the conjuror s act of demonstrating the apparently impossible the uncanny the marvellous or the grotesque challenges the spectator s sense of reality it brings him or her up against their own assumptions about how the world works at its most extreme it asks the spectator to re evaluate his or her sense of the limits of the human performing dark arts is an exploration of the paradox of the conjuror the actor who pretends to be a magician it aims to illuminate the history of conjuring by examining it in the context of performance studies and to throw light on aspects of performance studies by testing them against the art of conjuring the book examines not only the performances of individual magicians from dedi to david blaine but also the broader cultural contexts in which their performances were received and the meanings which they have attracted the second edition of knowledge and power in the global economy examines how neoliberal and neoconservative policies are working in tandem to privatize and commercialize public schools it looks at how these policies and the agendas behind them have impacted the internal dynamics of school management teaching and learning as well as how they have transformed the external dynamics of education from a public good or service offered to serve public interests to a private enterprise primarily serving private interests in addition to information critique and analysis multiple perspectives are provided that readers can draw upon to formulate an alternative vision of education as a crucial element of social change along democratic and egalitarian lines the first edition of this volume provided a critical encyclopedic approach to the rhetoric of educational reform as it developed from the 1980s through the 1990s critiquing its vocabulary elaborating the multiplicity of ways that the logic of neoliberalism and the emerging patterns of high stakes testing and accountability were impacting the curriculum and introducing ideas associated with alternative and liberatory educational projects since its publication in 2000 policy developments such as the no child left behind act of 2001 in the u s and others in the u k and other parts of the world have nationalized and intensified these patterns deepening the logic and extent of neoliberalism s hold over educational reforms at the same time it is impossible to understand the current crises in education solely in terms of neoliberalism the impact of neoconservatism must also be considered hence this second edition has a new subtitle the effects of school reform in a neoliberal neoconservative age this edition is structured around five themes political and social foundations anti educational foundations the set up anti educational foundations the trap classroom consequences and democracy s path this volume will particularly interest scholars and professionals across the fields of educational foundations curriculum theory and educational policy and is well suited as a text for courses in these areas
